NEW CASTLE FAIR IS DRAWING THRONG

Annual Local Fair Is Started; Many Features

Indications On First Day Are That Many Records Will Fall

RACES TO START ON WEDNESDAY

Displays Of All Kinds In Exhibit Buildings Are Most Attractive

New Castle Fair started off with a boom today, and although tomorrow is the first big day of the fair, by a look at the stock sheds, exhibition halls and the Midway, it appears as though today was a big exhibition day, indicating a record-breaking crowd during the remainder of the week.

Most of the stands on Midway are up and many are doing a fair business, with voices of the venders of ice cream, peanuts and pop and many a lad is already trying his luck at ringing the canes or spilling the milk.

Exhibits in Place

All the exhibits are in their places in the cattle, sheep and hog sheds, and the horses are in the barns getting their last combing in preparation for the ribbons they shall receive, while the poultry house is alive with the noise of cackles, quacks, the bark of dogs and the whine of puppies.

The board of directors of the Lawrence County Agricultural Association at a meeting this morning decided to have free acts in front of the grandstand on every afternoon and evening. Arrangements have been made with a troupe to put on one of the best aerial acts. These performances will be staged in front of the grand stand every day, both in the afternoon and evening.

An unusual number of good concessions for amusements have been let this year. Besides several good shows there are for the kiddies a merry-go-round, ferris wheel, aerial swing, ponies. These are all being put in place today for the big day tomorrow.

Street Department Workmen Putting Streets In Shape

Workmen of the street department are starting an extensive clean up campaign this week before winter weather sets in. A stone retaining wal is being placed at the bend on Arlington avenue, while two storm sewers, 18 inch and 30 inch, respectively, are being laid on Swansea avenue.

All over the city, states Assistant Street Commissioner Joseph Barber, gangs are working, repairing and building new catch basins, so as to take care of the winter water.

Along with this, workmen who have been engaged in rounding the corner of Lincoln avenue, where it intersects with Highland, are progressing nicely, and they will be ready to put on concrete tomorrow.

After this is done, the street department announces that they will put in a 24 inch storm sewer on Balph avenue.

Will Asks What Wets and Drys Can Fight About

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal. Sept. 26. — Jim Reed says prohibition will not be the issue with the Democrats and as usual Jim is right.

How are you going to make an issue of it?

The drys want it in the constitution and it's in there.

The wets want a drink and they got it.

So what's all the argument about?

GENE TUNNEY IN NEW YORK

Champion Given Tumultous Greeting On Arrival Home

CROWD SURROUNDS HIM AT STATION

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Gene Tunney returned to his home today like a conquering hero.

Nearly 2,000 persons jammed the Concourse of the Grand Central Station and cheered the big champion wildly as he stepped off a train from Cleveland. When the big crowd saw the smiling Tunney they broke through the police lines, surged down the runway to the train and staged a wild mob scene.

Newspaper reporters and photographers who had surrounded the champion were swept aside. The photographers, who barely saved their cameras from being demolished, got no pictures.

"It's great to be home," said Tunney, waving to the crowd.

A platoon of police cut a path through the crowd and Tunney was escorted to the Liggett Building, where Tunney planned to receive newspapermen. He had no further plans, having been taken in charge by the official Tunney reception committee.

Reed Predicts Vare Will Be Granted Seat

Pennsylvania Senator Will Lead Vare Defense Before Senate

MAJORITY VOTE ASSURES SEATING

Senate Likely To Dismiss Contest Brought By William B. Wilson

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 27.—The senate will seat Senator-elect William S. Vare, (R.) of Pennsylvania, and dismiss the contest filed by William B. Wilson his Democratic opponent, at was predicted today by Senator David A. Reed, who will lead the Vare defense.

Reed who returned home today from a month's visit to Europe, said he would go to Washington in a week to meet with Republican leaders on the Vare case. Until then Reed said, he could not tell whether the Vare forces will oppose extension of the life of the "Jim" Reed slush fund committee which investigated the Pennsylvania senatorial election last fall.

"It will depend upon developments in Washington whether we will oppose the 'Jim' Reed committee," the Pennsylvania senator said. "Regardless of that, I am confident Vare will be seated and the Wilson contest dismissed by the senate. Vare won his election to the senate by so tremendous a majority I can't see how the senate will ever deny him his legal seat."

All the ballots cast at the 1926 election were recently seized by orders of the three federal district courts in Pennsylvania. The ballots will be held under the jurisdiction of the courts until December when the senate will formally move to take charge of them for a recount in the Wilson contest against Vare.

Kelly Asserts Coolidge Still Retains Favor

Pennsylvania Representative Completes 8,000-Mile Tour Of Country

HOOVER STRONG, SURVEY REVEALS

Says People For Most Part Believe Coolidge Will Be Drafted Again

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—President Coolidge is still very much in the running for the Republican presidential nomination in the 1928 campaign and will continue to be unless he tells the country that "do not choose" means "shall not".

This is the opinion of Rep. Kelly (R) of Pennsylvania, who returned to the capitol today from an 8,000-mile trip over the country.

"I found that many people in political life and citizens generally believe that Mr. Coolidge will be drafted for the Republican nomination," said Kelly. "They refuse to take his statement to mean that he would not be a candidate if the party convention called him.

Fine President.

"There is a widespread opinion that he has made a fine president and should be continued in office."

Kelly's trip took him into New England states, to Ohio, Indiana and Missouri in the middle west, to Kansas and Texas.

Regarding other candidates, without expressing his own choice, he said:

"Secretary Hoover appears to have the most general following in the places I have been, ex-Governor Lowden is the strongest candidate of all in the middle west, and there also appears to be much Hoover sentiment there."

Kelly announced that he would press for enactment of a "postoffice policy" bill under which the post-office department would charge all free service agianst the government in its bookkeeping.

"If the books were properly kept and $100,000,000 free service written off every year, the department would show a surplus of $70,000,000," he said.

Beach Evades State Troopers In Jersey Case

Officers Probing Doctor's Death Unable To Locate Man Drawn Into Case

BLUE SEDAN NOW FACTOR IN MYSTERY

Troopers Unable To Locate Beach, Despite Fact He's Under Bond To Appear

(International News Service)
HAMMONTON, N. J., Sept. 27.—State troopers visiting the home of Willis Beach of Vineland, who was recently questioned in the murder of Dr. William Lilliendahl, found Beach absent today and were informed by neighbors that he had left in a blue sedan earlier in the day.

Beach, who was to have been taken to the murder scene in a swamp road near Vineland, was aware that the officers were to visit his home, authorities said.

Three men who testified they saw a blue sedan emerge from the death lane on the day of the murder were on hand today to inspect Beach's machine.

Admits Correspondence

Beach has admitted a clandestine correspondence with the aged doctor's wife, Gertrude, who was thirty years her husband's junior.

Another startling development in the ten-day investigation came today with the announcement that detectives had found two road maps, one in Mrs. Lilliendahl's pocketbook, which bore a series of dashes and crosses designating the spot where the murder was committed. Mrs. Lilliendahl has contended her husband was slain by two negro thugs while defending her. The second road map was found in the side pocket of the Lilliendahl car.

Discovering Beach had departed but a few minutes before their arrival, troopers questioned his son, Raymond, who said his father had left for Atlantic City, possibly to consult his lawyer.

Chief of detectives Frank Harrold announced that an alarm was to be broadcast throughout the state for the missing man.

"We have been unable to find any trace of him, despite the fact he is under bond to appear when wanted," Chief Harrold said.

Near Solution.

HAMMONTON, N. J., Sept. 27.—"I think we are closing in on a swift solution of this murder!"

This was the cryptic declaration today of Detective Frank Harrold, chief investigator in the Dr. William Lilliendahl murder mystery, uttered a few moments after sounding a state wide alarm for the apprehension of William Beach, neighbor of the Lilliendahls and close friend of the slain doctor's widow.

Says New Road Not Justified

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The plan of the Taplin interests to have the Pittsburgh and West Virginia railroad construct a line between Cochran's Mill and Connellsville, Pa. at estimated cost of $15,000,000 would involve an "unnecessarily large capital expenditure" and would "not be in the public interests," George M. Shriver senior vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio told the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The proposed construction is for the purpose of linking up the Pittsburgh and West Virginia with the Western Maryland.

The Van Sweringen's Nickel Plate road, New York Central and the Baltimore and Ohio are making a vigorous protest against the Taplin plan.

HOLD-UP MAN ROBS SOUTH SIDE WOMEN

A hold-up man terrorized the South Side district last night and kept the police on the jump for some time.

This man appeared to have a tendency to accost women, as the victims of the hold-ups in both instances last night were women residents of the South Side district. The money secured was not large in amount. The hold-ups were the work of the same man, at least, the general description in each instance was sufficient to indicate this. The hold-up man offered insults to one of the women, while he struck the other woman.

The women robbed were Mrs. Bibley, corner Hanna and Byers street, and Mrs. Harry Woods, 1603 Hanna street.

A call was received by the police to the effect that a woman had been hit in the face and her glasses broken, at the corner of Hanna and Morris streets. Detective Horner and Officers Moore and M. J. Young were detailed.

They found on investigation that Mrs. Bibley had been stopped by a man, who hit her on the jaw and broke her glasses. He took about $1.50 in money and keys of her garage and restaurant. The man also snatched a wedding ring from her finger. She described the man as being about five feet six inches in height, and wearing a black sweater, dark cap and black trousers. Her face was somewhat scratched up about one eye. The attack occurred at Morris and Hanna streets.

Mrs. Harry Woods, 1603 Hanna street, was accosted by the man on South Jefferson street, between Fulton and Sharp streets. He first accosted her, then grabbed her handbag, in which he secured 75 cents. She described him as being light complexioned and five feet four inches in height, and of medium build. She thought he had on a blue shirt and a light cap.

Officer Thomas answered this call. He could not locate the man.

Officers Horner, Moore and M. J. Young were also unsuccessful in their quest for the man who robbed Mrs. Bibley.

Magruder May Have Helpful Measures Coolidge Asserts

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—President Coolidge believes that there may be some helpful suggestion in the plans of Rear Admiral Thomas P. Magruder, commandant of the Philadelphia navy yard, to increase the efficiency of the navy.

Responding to inquiries concerning the sharp division of sentiment in the navy over Magruder's charges of inefficiency published last week in a national magazine, White House officials indicated today that Secretary Wilbur's order for Magruder to submit his suggestions formally, was a proper course.

The president does not feel that the present level of expenditures for the army and navy should be reduced, but he strongly favors the greatest possible efficiency.

Report Mystery In Disappearance Of R. J. Reynolds

Oldest Son Of Late Founder Of Reynolds Tobacco Company Is Hunted

HAS BEEN MISSING FOR ELEVEN DAYS

Roadster Is Found In Creek; Youth Had $2,500 When Last Seen

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Mysteriously missing for more than 11 days, Richard J. Reynolds, 21, oldest son of the late founder of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, and one of the five heirs to a $50,000,000 fortune, was the object of an intensive search by police and private detectives today.

Due to the unsuccessful efforts of searchers to obtain any trace of the youthful millionaire, a resident of Winston-Salem, N. C., fears have arisen that he has met either with a serious accident or foul play. He has noto been seen since he placed a young lady aboard a train for St. Louis early on the morning of Friday, Sept. 16, after leaving a Broadway night club shortly before dawn.

Find His Roadster

One of the most mysterious elements in the disappearance, it was learned, was the finding of Reynolds' expensive yellow roadster overturned in a creek, near Port Washington, Long Island, shortly before noon on the day he disappeared. No one was found near the car, and there was no evidence to indicate what had happened to its driver.

Reynolds, who is president of the Reynolds Airways, Ltd., which arranged last month to purchase Curtiss Field, near Mineola, Long Island, and establish there a freight and airplane service, came to New York from Winston-Salem on Sunday, Sept. 11, to attend the opening of a musical comedy of which he was the backer. He divided the first four days of his stay here between Broadway and Long Beach, where he had rented a home. On September 15 he took up quarters here at the Hotel White with John Graham, a friend, and Manuel H. Davis, an officer of

Plan For Early Trial Of Agents In Slaying Case

Seek Speedy Trial For Four Dry Agents Accused Of Slaying Aged Man

WIFE APPEARS AS ONLY WITNESS

(International News Service)
BALTIMORE, Sept. 27.—The stage was cleared today for an early trial in federal court here of the four dry agents charged with the murder of Charles Gundlach, 77, on his lonely farm near Leonardtown, Md.

Over the protest of Philip H. Dorsey, state's attorney, of St. Mary's county, Federal Judge Morris A. Soper released J. Randolph Brewer under $10,000 bond. Mrs. Gundlach, sobbing as she told her story, accused Brewer, as the leader of the raid, of shooting her husband as he lay on the porch with bullet wounds in his body.

The three other agents, D. M. Jackley, R. S. Cornett and John T. Fisher, already are under bond. Fisher is in a hospital in Washington.

The case has been given precedence on the calendar and probably will be reached within a week.

Mrs. Gundlach was the only witness presented by Dorsey.

Again accusing Brewer she said: "He's the man who fired a pistol right at my husband's head after the firing was over."

Brewer admitted firing the shots which killed Gundlach but said he shot in self defense when Gundlach appeared on the porch and began firing at the agents with a shotgun and a pistol. The raiders did not have a warrant.

Robert D. Ford, deputy prohibition commissioner, testified that he visited the farm in July and found Mrs. Gundlach brewing beer and Gundlach just returning from a trip to sell moonshine.

The court declared there was no reason to hold Brewer when the other agents had been released.

An unusually large number of hogs are found in the swine exhibit, and some very prize animals. Most of the owners of these exhibits are local men who have a few animals on exhibition.

The poultry house is filling up today with all kinds of chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys and all varieties of fowl. McClure Hartzell, superintendent of this department, says that from reports they feared that their exhibition would be small this year but it seems to be now as though all their space will be taken and additional space will have to be arranged.

Some of the finest specimens among the animals are those of the boys' and girls' clubs sponsored by the Lawrence county farm bureau. The farm bureau has arranged a camp for the boys at the fair grounds which the boys are already taking advantage of.

Exhibits of farm products which have been arranged in the hall include almost everything that is raised in the district and include fruits and vegetables of all varieties. The grange hall has been most fittingly decorated and arranged.

REPORT MYSTERY IN DISAPPEARANCE OF R. J. REYNOLDS

the Plane Speaker Corporation, an airplane accessory concern.

Cashes Check for $2,500

Early on the morning of September 15 young Reynolds cashed a check for $2,500. In addition, he had a check for $2,500 given him by Graham in payment for an automobile. The two men attended the Nassau county fair at Mineola, Long Island, had late dinner at a roadhouse in Oyster Bay, and after that proceeded to the Charm Club, a night restaurant and dancing place in New York City. They had driven there in the automobile which Graham had purchased, Reynolds leaving instructions with his servants to have his own yellow roadster parked at the Mineola railroad station.

They remained at the club until six o'clock Friday morning, when Reynolds left to escort the young woman, whom the police said was Miss Marie Houston of St. Louis. According to Graham, the pair left in a taxicab alone. This was the last time Reynolds was seen.

May Be In Europe

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Sept. 27.—Belief was expressed here today by close associates of Richard J. Reynolds, 21, oldest son of the late founder of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, who has been mysteriously missing for more than 11 days, that the young millionaire may be in Europe.

It was known here that two of Reynolds' young sisters are now traveling in France, and close friends believed it not improbable that the youthful head of the Reynolds Airways, Ltd., may have joined them.

George W. Orr, former business manager of the Reynolds estate, declared that he last saw Reynolds in New York on Thursday, Sept. 15, at his office there.

Orr declared that an erroneous report had been made that he had seen young Reynolds last Thursday, Sept. 22. He explained today that his last visit with Reynolds was prior to the finding of Reynolds' roadster overturned in a creek near Port Washington, L. I.

George W. Orr, local manager of the Reynolds estate, who last saw Reynolds in his New York office on September 15, the day of his disappearance, explained today that it was customary for Reynolds to "pick up and leave without telling anyone."

"However," Orr said, I can not remember of Reynolds going away for this long without notifying anyone, but he often picked up and left when he wanted to."

Orr expressed the belief that Reynold's roadster, found overturned in a creek near Port Washington, Long Island, on the day Reynolds disappeared, had not been driven by the young millionaire himself, but had been stolen. It was customary, Orr declared, for Reynolds to stop at Mineola Station when going to Curtiss Field.

John Graham companion of the missing millionaire whose interests ranged from presidency of an airways concern to sponsorship of an unsuccessful Broadway play, is expected to arrive in Winstom-Salem today.

Graham, according to reports here, was with Reynolds a few days before he disappeared.

Not Candidate, Says Donahey

Governor Of Ohio Declares He's Not After Democratic Nomination

(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 27.—"I am not a candidate for president," Governor Vic Donahey told U. S. Senator Clarence Dill of Spokane, Wash., during a conference at the governor's office here Monday.

The welfare of the Democratic party was the theme of the conference which was held behind closed doors.

At the close of the conference, Senator Dill informed newspaper men that he had invited Governor Donahey to visit the west and "become better acquainted."

"Although he is not known in the west, western Democrats are friendly to Governor Donahey," said Dill.

"The west is dry and will oppose Governor Al Smith or any other 'wet,' man for the presidency," asserted Senator Dill, who said he did not want to be placed in the position of fighting Governor Smith.

Declaring that if Governor Donahey was nominated by the Democrats for the presidency "he would add strength to the ticket," Senator Dill said that "any man who has been elected governor of Ohio three times, like Governor Donahey has, is available for the presidential nomination."

Pointing out that Governor Donahey is regarded by many persons as a conservative dry and is not opposed by the wets, Senator Dill indicated his belief that, in the event the voting for a presidential candidate at the next Democratic national convention reaches the deadlock stage, Governor Donahey would be available as a compromise candidate.

Safety Education Must Begin In Schools Of Nation

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Safety education must begin in the schools Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club, declared in an address here today.

America has enough safety laws, Hayes asserted, and addition to those now in effect might do more harm than good by bestowing upon the pedestrian a false sense of security.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

THE loss of life and property by fire is increasing year by year by reason of the public's failure to recognize the fact that increase is adding to the already high cost of commodities and is a tax imposed upon every individual whether they be property owners or occupants.

So serious has this condition grown that in the past few years, as a means of calling attention to the unnecessary waste of wealth, a certain specific time has been selected to particularly call attention to the danger arising from fire and advocating the removal of the cause.

October 9 to 15, the latter being the anniversary of the great Chicago fire of 1871, coming as it does at the beginning of the fall season, when preparations are being made for the relighting of fires for the heating of homes, has throughout the United States been resignated as Fire Prevention Week, when all the people will be asked to make inspection of properties and premises and remove all fire menacing conditions as a means of conserving life and property.

FLORIDA CALLS FOR PROTECTIVE TARIFF

IN THE midst of frenzied Democratic efforts to seize upon the tariff as a foothold for the national political campaign, the appeal of Democratic Florida for a protective tariff against the fruit and vegetable growers of Cuba and Mexico is revealing asserts the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Whether Florida deserves a tariff of this kind we do not profess to know, for the details of the business that has been built in the South for winter fruits and vegetables are intricate matters for expert study and adjudication. Also there is the question whether Florida markets are not more affected by the competition of other southern states—as for instance Texas. Finally there is the question of consumer prices for these off-season commodities, and the immense gap between the producer's revenue and the consumer's payments, which represents the cost and the waste of distribution.

The fact remains, however, that as soon as a group of southern Democrats feel the economic pinch of foreign competition they call directly for tariff protection. Louisiana, Georgia, the Carolinas and other states where agriculture may come into conflict with foreign produce or where new industries are building and seeking encouragement receive the brayings of low tariff advocates with less patience every year. The old clarion call of Democracy has a hollow sound, indeed, with the South awakened to the realization that adequate tariff means protection.

NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN TO AROUSE VOTERS

BEGINNING next month the National Association of Manufacturers proposes to inaugurate a nation-wide campaign to interest all citizens in the presidential and congressional elections of 1928. It is to be a non-partisan movement, and the originators of the plan have set 36,000,000 voters as their goal. A similar campaign in 1924 brought approximately 30,000,000 of the 57,000,000 qualified voters to the polls. It is estimated that 60,000,000 persons will have the right to vote next year, and the aim of the organization is to induce 60 percent of them to exercise the franchise.

There is nothing visionary in this; on the contrary it might be possible to obtain even better results. The history of politics in this country proves that if the issue can be made a burning one the people will come out to vote. In the campaign of 1896 no less than 80 per cent of the eligible voters of the country went to the polls. This was the famous McKinley-Bryan contest when tens of thousands of voters cast partisanship to the winds. William Jennings Bryan made a whirlwind campaign, and it was his boast that he traveled more and made a greater number of speeches than any candidate who had ever been nominated for the presidency. His oratorical powers were very great, and he undoubtedly aroused popular interest, but it took a turn which he had not anticipated, and he was overwhelmingly defeated.

After that there was a reaction and the popular vote in presidential years decreased. The percentage gradually dropped every four years until, in 1920, it had declined to 49 per cent of those entitled to go to the polls. The interest in voting was much stimulated in the 1924 contest, and there is no good reason why it should not be increased in 1928.

It is a patriotic movement, and with speeches in every part of the country and the liberal use of the radio it should be effective. The non-partisan character of the campaign entitles it to a respectful hearing by everybody. The slogan: "Vote as you please, but vote," should meet with a deserved response.

"Voting," says John E. Edgerton, president of the association, "is the national business of every one who has arrived at voting age." We are wonderfully prosperous, but there will always be elements of danger and destruction to offset. "One way to protect what we have won is for every man and woman who is eligible to cast his ballot." It is a call to duty, and it is to be earnestly hoped that every American who loves his or her country will respond.

The real balance of trade depends largely on the accuracy of the scales.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:59. Sun rises tomorrow 5:53.

A Michigan doctor says sixty out of one hundred babies born of mothers who smoke die before the age of two years, the nicotine killing them. This ought to make real mothers at least think.

Some girls are so afraid their parents will see them making love that they go to the movies to spoon.

There is a group of bimbos in this city who start out at every election to "lick" some candidates. This outfit was never known to try to elect anyone. They even put up some friend at times to use him to "lick" some candidate they do not like, or perhaps one who will not pay them to be for him. That bunch of kitties is planning right now to upset things again if they can. Lawrence county has suffered enough. Another thing: this kind of birds are never known to do anything worth while for their city, some not even being good church paying members.

The government will not allow the pictures of the Tunney-Dempsey fight to be taken from the state of Illinois, but the promoters of that fight are doing all they can to get the illegal films shown everywhere. The government claims the pictures of the fight are demoralizing. Wonder what the government thinks of the rot sent out over the radio from the ringside?

Two female shoplifters in Pittsburgh were caught stealing in the dress department of a big store and they were searched thoroughly and nothing was found on them. Just before they were turned loose one of the searchers looked into the vanity case of one and found two silk dresses that had been compressed into a ball not larger than a man's fist. It sure does not take much room to hold a modern dress.

A fool manages to keep the fact from himself longer than he does anybody else.

There are people in the United States, and a lot of them, who think the time has come to protest against the kind of prize-fights held in Chicago last week. We think so, too. If there every was anything demoralizing in this country it is that kind of rot. It is simply scandalous from every point of view, and we are not jealous of the money obtained either. And we were not tenderly raised, either, and we are not any upright mollycoddle, either.

Prof. Tunney says he will fight Dempsey again for a million dollars. Most anyone would take a chance with Dempsey for that amount of plunder.

Those who want to do something for their city and county in general can do so by making a big effort to help entertain the four thousand delegates to the Sunday school convention to be held in this city next month. Making those delegates go back home boosting New Castle will be a great thing. Get ready now to do your bit.

It is said that a dozen men dropped dead from excitement and heart disease on the night of the Tunney-Dempsey fight in Chicago. So far we have never heard of very many dropping dead on account of any evangelistic services in one night.

There is always more or less complaint about the work of election boards. We think competency should be considered in such jobs. Just because someone wants the job or even needs it, is not a good reason for giving it to such a person. Efficiency should be the only thing considered.

Even with the increased cost of house rent very few people stay at home to get their money's worth.

Just imagine the feelings of that lady in Illinois who was convicted of poisoning her husband and had served three years in the pen and was granted a new trial and then acquitted. She said before the jury that she preferred death to going back to the pen. She wanted to go back to her three small children. We are not much in sympathy with husband murderers, being a more or less husband ourselves, but the kiddies appealed to us in this case.

When an automobile and a human body meet in violent contact the automobile will emerge the more cheerful of the two.

The phonograph is fifty years of age but some of the neighbors' records are not more than half that old.

Girls will be girls, but a lot of the little ones are trying to be women.

We never could see anything very good in the elderberry when prepared in the ordinary domestic manner, such as in pies, stewed, etc. If it is no better when made into hootch it must be scandalous, but the more scandalous the hootch the better some bozos like to lick it up.

About the only difference between death and taxes is that you can die without turning in a phony tax statement.

Every stockholder in "The Castleton" feels mighty good as he sees the wonderful new hotel. There will be more reason for the stockholders to feel even better later on.

BANK ADVERTISING

Chauncey Depew says that $100 he had placed in a savings bank 36 years ago has grown to $1,100. John E. Andrus says that a share of Singer Sewing Machine stock which he purchased in 1864 has netted him $94,600.

Here are two texts for savings sermons. They are concrete examples of thrift. Other illustrious men could probably add to examples of the cumulative value of interest on investments. The fourth estate passes them along as possible pointers for the practical use of bank advertising copy writers.

She was standing near the rail,
She was looking deathly pale.
Was she looking for a whale?
Not at all.
She's her mamma's lovely daughter,
Casting bread upon the water
In a way she hadn't oughter—
That is all!

It takes a lot of chivalry to walk down the street and say that modern styles reveal "charms."

Many of those smart beach flappers are now in school and are proving anything but smart there. In fact they are the dumb ones.

Indiana seems to have adopted a policy of keeping one governor in jail at a time. Former Governor McCray has been released from prison and Governor Jackson has been indicted by the grand jury.

More than $600,000 in first class mail, direct mail advertising fails to reach the addressesee each year postal officials announce. This does not include the millions of pieces of second and third class mail advertising that goes to the dead letter office. The worst fault of direct mail advertising is the waste, and worst of all you don't know it. There is no way of telling whether the advertising reaches its destination or not. But in a newspaper every purchaser of a paper is a potential reader of advertising. And if you think those who buy papers don't want them, just have a boy miss one day and see how many calls you get on it.

Good golf weather promotes more marital difficulties than bad liquor.

THE WEB OF LIFE

We're each weaving a web
In the great loom of life
With the warp that extends the way through,
While the woof is the threads
Gathered up by the way—
Just the things that we think, say or do.

There's a strand of good will,
Or of hatred, perhaps,
And 'tis woven into the design,
There becoming a part
Of the pattern we weave,
A true image of your life and mine.

Threads of joy or remorse,
Or of kindly deeds done,
Or of evil intentions, or pride,
We may weave in the web
As the shuttle flies through
Leaving strands that will surely abide.

When the web of life ends
And our work has been done
And the pattern appears all complete,
May the likeness reflect,
In some measure, at least,
The fair face of the Master we'll meet.

The dry Democrats are already organizing to oppose Governor Al Smith's presidential ambitions at the Democratic convention in 1928. One thing sure the ones that are opposed to Smith are strong against him and will never be on his side.

The revenue department announces that 102,450 paid admission to see the fight. The other 60 or 70 thousand must have been on the deadhead list. We always knew fighting was a punk game.

A woman who has been wedded five times is reported to still have faith in the institution of marriage. She must have a good deal of faith in herself or a lot of charm or some way of mesmerizing her victims. We know lots of forgotten maidens who still believe in marriage but who don't seem to be able to get the man to believe.

It is now claimed that it is possible to make rubber from fig trees. Well, the old world is going back to first principles all right. There isn't any doubt in our minds but that our old great grand daddy Adam got a good rubber out of the figs leaves in that lovely garden. Yea bo.

Reports from the front at Chicago indicate that neither Dempsey or Tunney was hurt much in their recent three million dollar battle. About ten people have died as the result of the excitement of the seventh round. It is the adage of the dog that bit the man and it was the dog that died. The spectators were hurt more than the fighters.

Short skirts are said to be life savers to the women as it enables them to get out of the way of traffic jams, claims a New York health expert. Then with the number of cars increasing every day there isn't any chance of the skirt doing a comeback in fact it is going away farther than ever.

The office that has to go around looking for the man is generally a poor sort of job.

Human nature is pretty much the same as it has been for years past and the reason there were not more killed at the railroad crossings in former years was probably because old dobbin generally had more sense than his driver.

It may be news to us that ten countries sent no immigrants to us last year. The countries are Ethiopia, Muscat, Nepal, Tanganyika, the Togolands, French Cameroon, Naura and Yap. In fact it is news to us that there are a number of such countries.

THE STICKING QUALITY

After having been a school teacher for 53 years, a Pennsylvania woman has won her degree from a college. It was a life-time ambition with her. In her earlier years she did not have the opportunity. So many so-called ambitions are just sudden enthusiasms. Most of us lack the sticking quality in ambition. The thing we think we want to do today we don't want to do tomorrow. The big rewards of life are for those whose ambition, next year, will not have gone stale.

CHAMPIONITIS

There is an epidemic of championitis abroad. Some man wants to sit on the top of a flag pole longer than anybody else ever did. Another man is bound to fly faster and farther, and another man insists on breaking the record for eating eggs. Tens of thousands gather to see a prize-fight, not so much because they care for prize fighting as because the fight determines a championship.

Silly, somebody says. And yet it's not silly. In that idea are the germs of real progress. Competition has pushed the world forward. The quest for championship sometimes leads into strange paths and to absurd lengths, but the quest is a healthy one.

AS TO BEING SHOCKED

Beware of losing the ability to be shocked, says Henry Churchill King, great educator. Dean Swift said: "I never wonder to see men wicked, but I often wonder to see them not ashamed."

If there is anything worse than doing evil, it is to feel no repentance. If there is anything worse than a bad system of living it is to build up a defense for that system of living. To make a philosophy which excuses evil and to try and believe that philosophy is worse than many a bad act.

IT'S THE BRAIN

Gertrude Ederle swam the English Channel, and it was admitted that her exploit was the greatest in combined speed and endurance ever credited to a woman. Few today think much about Gertrude Ederle, although she performed a most creditable physical feat. Despite a very small handful of prize-fighters and others, the world in the long run pays a much higher price for brains. Young folks will do well to remember that.

RULES FOR INVESTORS

It is about as hard to keep your money safely as it is to make it in the first place. It requires almost as much care, ingenuity and foresight as it does to earn the money.

Joseph R. Nutt, president of the Union Trust Company, of Cleveland, has given us a list of questions which an expert analyst would want answered before reaching a decision about a bond.

By the way, one question a friend of mine who has large means said, he was always asked about a bond was, "Will the bank buy it?" If the bond wasn't good enough for a bank it wasn't good enough for him. Mr. Nutt's questions are as follows:

What is the corporation's earning record.

Have the earnings been analyzed? Sometimes a sufficient allowance has not been made for maintenance and depreciation, although the earnings of the company amount to more than their interest charges.

What is the company's financial condition?

How much of the assets are inventory?

Have the company's books been audited? Sometimes without auditing, the books may show a company to appear more prosperous than it really is.

What is the character of the company's business, competition, etc.?

One of the most important questions is, How well is the company managed?

Have all necessary legal precautions been taken?

If the principal and interest guarantee, what does that guarantee amount to and is it enforceable?

To what purpose is the issue?

Will the borrowing purpose be fulfilled?

Are future bond issues restricted?

Can the company redeem its bonds upon maturity?

Is a sinking fund necessary?

What are the precautions regarding taxation of the bonds

Is the property free from liens?

Is the income return in keeping with general market conditions?

Investing has become a science. If you are untrained in it, you can hardly depend upon your own judgment. It is better to submit it to an investment house or a bank in whom you have confidence.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

SOME HINDRANCES.

There is much said today about the Law's Delay. When the number of divorce cases is considered, when the prosecutions for bootlegging, and violations of the liquor laws are added together, it will be found that the Courts are more occupied today with divorces and liquor violations than all the rest of the law suits put together.

There is enough delay in all conscience's sake in the trial of cases and in obtaining decisions from the Courts of Appeal, but until there are less divorces and less "booze" cases, found in the calendars, the length of the delays will increase rather than diminish. There are a great many liquor cases that should never appear in the courts. After days of trial and tribulation on the part of the State's Attorney and the defendant's Attorney, it is often found that the evidence in many cases is of a very flimsy character. At least many of the officers entrusted with the ferreting out of this sort of crime don't seem to be fully equipped mentally.

In a recent case where a citizen was charged with the operation of a so called "blind pig" the State's Attorney asked the following question of one of the county detectives:

"Were there any openings in the so-called shed or barn of the premises, which you have mentioned?"

"Yes, there were several small openings."

"Were these openings large enough for a pig or other animal to crawl through?"

"Yes, just large enough, so that I could crawl through."

The great laugh which followed this colloquy between the lawyer and the detective went entirely over the head of the detective. The whole case was tried upon just this sort of evidence, and there was nothing else for the jury to do but acquit.

MY TOWNS—ELIZABETH

Elizabeth, New Jersey, is one of those cities that lives in the shadow of New York without having its own personality either stunted or faded.

There are fast commuter trains constantly running between Elizabeth and the big city. The trip takes possibly twenty minutes. You would naturally suppose that a town of 100,000, within twenty minutes of a town of 6,000,000, would be just a collection of apartments and boarding houses, vacant during the day and asleep at night.

Not so Elizabeth. It is a city of considerable individuality. It has a proud history. In Elizabeth there stands an old tavern where Washington stopped when he was on his way to New York for his first inauguration at president.

Princeton University had its beginning here. The town was once the capital of the province of New Jersey. It was one of the constant sufferers from the American Revolution, while the contending forces swept backward and forward, leaving poor Elizabeth to read in the day's proclamations whether it was today a British or an American possession.

But Elizabeth doesn't live on its glorious past. It is one of the most up-to-the-minute towns of its size you can find anywhere.

Elizabeth has the factories that make a city's life stable and prosperous. It has the largest sewing machine factory in the world. But that doesn't make it a one-factory town. For miles and miles along the streets of Elizabeth you see the modern daylight-flooded factories. At the hour for quitting work you see streets jammed with satisfied workers, who are earning good wages for honest work. That's the kind of a population that forms the basis of the wealthiest and most contented American cities.

It used to be that when you said "factory town" you used to picture a mean huddle of darkened lofts, where pale workers wore out their discontented lives. You pictured acres of dirty shacks, where these same workers slept—when they could sleep.

Thanks to American industry, "Factory town" means something else today. It means—well, to many people it means Elizabeth.

New York Police Investigate Death Of Italian Child

Seven-Year-Old Child Slain While Asleep In Home, Feud Is Blamed

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Police investigating the murder of seven-year-old Angelina Constanto, slain as she slept yesterday morning, advanced the theory today that her death resulted from a family feud. They continued to question Biaggio Arsenio, 65, white-haired Italian laborer who is under arrest. Arsenio declared he was working at the time of the murder.

Investigating reports of a feud between the Arsenio family and the Constanto-Saltarello clans, police discovered veritable arsenals in the homes of all three families. They found five revolvers and three shotguns, one of which was used to blow out the girl's brains with a double charge of buckshot.

Arsenio blamed the Constantos and the Saltarellos for the romance that led to the elopment of his daughter, Franes, with Dominick Valuvio recently. Police were told that Arsenio was thrown out of the Constanto home on Sunday night.

Step-Father Is Slain By Youth Defending Mother

Coast Youth, 12 Years Old, Shoots Step-Father In Quarrel

ONLY INTENDED TO WOUND HIM

(International News Service)
BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 27.—"I am not glad I killed him, but if I caught him abusing my mother again, I'd shoot him."

This was the statement made today by 12-year-old Jerome Frederick Cornell, who yesterday shot and killed his step-father, Charles D. Van Alderwelt, 35, who, according to the boy, was choking his mother when he fired the fatal shot.

The shooting, police said, came as the aftermath of a violent quarrel between Van Alderwelt, San Francisco manager of the foreign department of the American Express Company, and his second wife, young Cornell's mother.

The youth said he heard sounds of a violent quarrel yesterday morning, that he came downstairs in time to see his step-father hurl a cigarette box at his mother, and that he then ran upstairs and loaded his small-caliber rifle.

"When I came down again," he said, "my step-father was choking my mother. He called me a dog and told me to get out."

Then, according to the boy's story to police, he raised the rifle without taking definite aim and fired. The boy said he wanted to hit his step-father in the hip. The bullet, however, pierced the tip of Van Alderwelt's heart. He was taken to a hospital, but died a short time later.

Weilkiewicz was arrested on a charge of assault and battery and pleaded guilty to the charge yesterday before Judge Sayers who imposed a fine of $100 in addition to ordering him to pay the costs.

The defendant who admitted in court that he was married kissed Miss Wencho while walking along the street with her from a motion picture show.

Continue Row On Naval Issue

Secretary Wilbur Asks Magruder To Give Detailed Statement For New Policy

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The row in the navy over charges of Rear Admiral Thomas P. Magruder, commandant of he Philadelphia navy yard that the navy was over organized and generally inefficient continued unabatted today.

The latest development was a request by Secretary of the Navy Wilbur that Magruder submit to the department at once "a full and detailed statement of his plan for reorganizing the navy and the navy department."

It was accepted as a challenge to Magruder to prove his charges. Magruder informed the department that he had no such plan prepared.

Wilbur has practically abandoned any idea of disciplining Magruder.

"I regret that he (Magruder) did not submit his article before it was published, as it contained mistakes and inaccuracies which could have been corrected" said Wilbur. "But this will be overlooked. His plan will be studied but I cannot say what action will be taken on it."

Luckies First for Flavor and Goodness

Then note the verdict of 11,105* doctors

WHAT is the quality that Mario Chamlee, Florence Easton, Marie Rappold, Reinald Werrenrath, Giuseppe DeLuca, Fritzi Scheff, William Hodge, and other famous singers, actors, broadcasters and public speakers have found that makes LUCKY STRIKES delightful and of no possible injury to their voices?

For the answer we turned to medical men and asked them this question:

Do you think from your experience with LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes that they are less irritating to sensitive or tender throats than other cigarettes, whatever the reason?

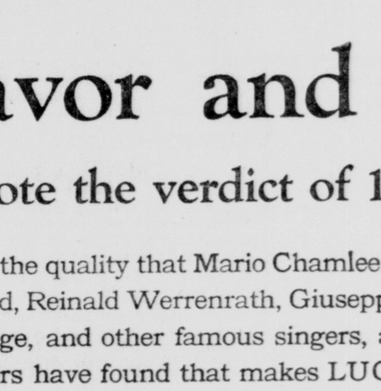

11,105 doctors answered this question "YES."

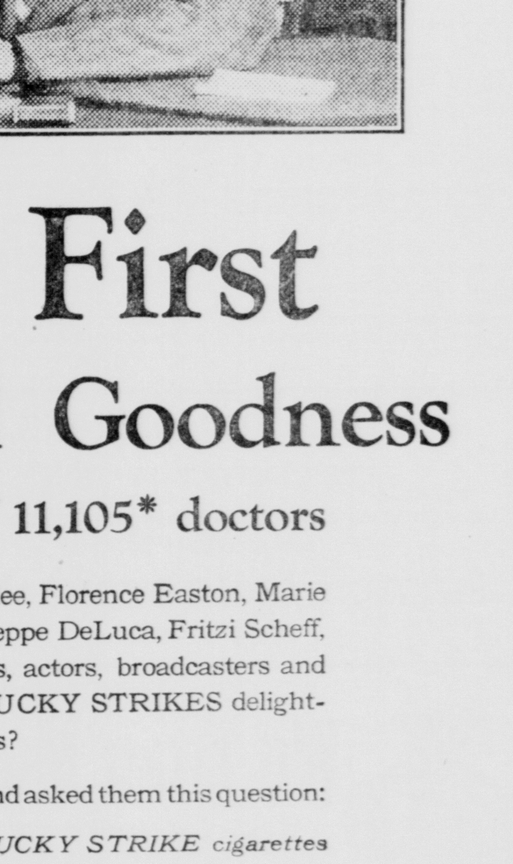

Consider what these figures mean; consider that they represent the opinion and experience of doctors, those whose business it is to know.

Reinald Werrenrath
Famous Baritone,
writes:

In my concert work, I must, of course, give first consideration to my voice. Naturally, I am very careful about my choice of cigarettes as I must have the blend which is kindly to my throat. I smoke Lucky Strikes, finding that they meet my most critical requirements.

Boy Scout News

Troop No. 20

Regular meeting of the Italian M. E. Scout troop, No. 20, was held Friday evening, Sept. 23.

The patrol basketball contest was won by the Lion patrol after a hotly contested game with the Bear patrol. After the game the troop held its regular opening ceremonies. Besides the large number of Scouts who were present there were two visitors. Later in the evening a knot-tying contest was held for the tenderfeet of the troop, George Houch coming out the winner.

Inspection was then held. The main feature of the evening was a performance given by the Lion patrol, headed by Patrol Leader Harold Charbonier, after which the scoutmaster presented two Scouts with certificates.

After the Scouts were dismissed the patrol leaders and the assistant patrol leaders held a meeting in which they decided to put money in a treasury so that they might visit other cities and get ideas of how other troops are managed.

The scoutmaster also gave the patrol leaders advice about scouting and told them the good and bad points about the meeting.

Next meeting will be held Friday, Sept. 30, at 6:30 p. m.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

TRAPPED IN FOG

"'B-A-A-A-A,' bleated Mrs. Seal. 'What a poor story teller I am! I started to tell you about that blow when first we met, and I have ranged the ocean over without coming to the point. Now, to begin at the beginning of the most dreadful experience of my life! As I believe I said, we Seals had been ranging the winter seas when suddenly Spring sent its messengers to tell us it was time to give up the life of the wild and settle down to family duty on the shore. I, with the rest of my tribe, was making for the rock of my birth. We had been swimming for days, and as that last happy night drew on we knew that in the morning light we should sight home.'

"Mrs. Seal sighed and wiped away a tear with her flipper.

"'But, alas, when morn did come we found that we had floated into fog. Not a sign of our beloved rocks could we see— nothing at all but damp mists that covered us like a blanket. Then suddenly out of the grayness sailed a shape—then another, and another, and another.

"'What were they? Not ships, surely—at least, not like those that passed us afar off in midocean. Possibly they were some sea strangers we had never met.

"'We were frightened, but we were curious as well. We could not resist waiting to find out what they were. Nearer and nearer, and yet nearer, stole the ghosts.

"'"Wheeew!"

"'It was my husband whistling to me, and he sounded beside himself with fear.

"'But before I could get to his side the tribe was in a commotion. Too late we saw that the floating shapes were indeed boats, and in every boat were Two-Legs, and they had bang sticks and clubs in their hands. Spitting and roaring and growling, the males tried to place themselves between us and danger, but they only succeeded in getting in our way. Before we could escape to the open seas the boats—and they were many of them—had surrounded us. In such a crowd not many of us could dive. We were caught in a trap and there was no help for us.'"

Seek To Prevent Dissolution Of House Of David

Says Testimony Of Girl Witnesses Only Scheme To Blackmail Aged Leader

(International News Service)

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Sept. 27.—Branding the testimony of 15 girl accusers of "King" Benjamin Purnell as part of a gigantic blackmail plot, attorneys for the House of David today argued before Judge Louis H. Fead to prevent dissolution of the colony as demanded by the state.

"King" Ben's chief attorney, Ex-Judge H. F. DeWhirst who gave up his superior court bench in California and a fortune of $55,000 to Purnell to join Ben's "eternal life" colony here, declared the serious charges against he cult leader were part of the alleged scheme to gain control of colony property valued at $3,000,000.

George H. Bookwalter prosecutor of Berrien county arguing for the state yesterday referred to charges of mistreatment hurled at Purnell by former girl members of the cult and demanded dissolution of the colony as a public nuisance.

First Christian Sunday School Sends Quota

The First Christian church is next on the list to send and pay registration fees of their officers and teachers to the big Sabbath school association convention to be held in New Castle October 12, 13 and 14, in fact they are planning to go a step further that than the other schools have yet done and send and pay the registration fees of the members of their choir in order to have them sing in the convention chorus choir.

There have been 65 annual conventions of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School association and Lawrence county will have the honor, distinction and privilege of having the largest delegation from the entertaining county in the history of the association.

Another feature of the convention will be the big chorus choir which will be composed of singers from every Sabbath school in the county. The first rehearsal of this chorus choir will be next Sunday afternoon at the Scottish Rite cathedral at 3 o'clock. All singers in this choir are urged to be present. John W. Owens, the director of music, has just secured some very appropriate selections that will be rendered.

Forest Surveys Are Obliterated

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 27.—Time and careless hunters have effaced original surveys markings on state forest land to such an extent that at least 370 miles will have to be resurveyed, officials of the Department of Forests and Waters said today.

The majority of the original surveys were made from 1906 to 1914. Many of the boundary lines marked at that time have since been lost.

The early surveys were instructed to mark an occasional tree with the state mark, shaped like a huge glass. At certain seasons of the year this mark was difficult to make and became gradually more like the letter X. The mark was discontinued and the old style blazes and notches were used.

In 1909 the department secured several thousand round tin tags, painted them white, and tacked them on line trees loosely so that the wind would make them wave and be more visible. The cost, however, was found to be too high and shining tags made excellent marks for hunters who found game scarce.

As a result many of the original lines have been lost entirely. The majority of the state forest land is situated in districts where the cost of surveys is high because of the lack of transport and the difficulty of obtaining board for the crews.

The department plans to begin a resurvey and mark lines with tags and signs that will last indefinitely.

Father will have to step in and pinch hit occasionally when the young man graduate first strikes out for himself.

Sentence Passed On Prisoners By Judge Hildebrand

George W. Heckart Is Given One Year To The Workhouse On Liquor Charge

Prisoners who were convicted or who entered pleas at the Lawrence county term of court closed last week were sentenced by Judge Hildebrand this morning. The severest sentence was given to George W. Heckart, who was fined $300 and sentenced to one year in the Allegheny county workhouse on a charge of selling liquor. Mr. Heckart had never been in court before. Judge Hildebrand expressed surprise that he should have been engaged in the liquor business. The sales were alleged to have been made at the Heckart home. A petition parole will be entertained at the end of three months if the fine and costs are paid.

Joe Paladius, for operating a motor vehicle during the suspension of license, was fined $100 and given three months in the county jail.

Stephen Cegelka, for possessing liquor, was fined $200 and sentenced to four months in the county jail. Petition for parole will be entertained in 30 days if fine and costs are paid.

Ernest Palmer and Gus Mangrum were each fined $100 and costs and given four months in the workhouse. They are residents of Wampum or vicinity. They claimed that they had seen two men hide three gallons of liquor and after the men had left they secured it and were arrested with it in their possession.

Frances Alles, on a charge of possessing liquor, was paroled. She claimed that a bottle of liquor found in her home did not belong to her.

Thomas Mayer of Ellwood City was paroled on a liquor charge on the payment of $100.

Mary Mitchell, on a charge of possessing liquor, was paroled for two years.

Steve Miller, for possessing liquor, was fined $100 and paroled. It was claimed that he had merely been sent for some liquor by another man who was selling it to officers who were securing evidence.

New Radio Law Believed Benefit

Senator Dill Declares That Business Has Prospered Under Act

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 27.—Belief that the new federal act regulating radio broadcasting "has strengthened and stabilized" the radio industry and that radio manufacturers have prospered under its operation, was voiced here by U. S. Senator C. C. Dill, Spokane, Wash., one of the authors of the act.

Senator Dill declared the law has not been in operation long enough to determine its weaknesses. Amendments designed to cure such defects as may develop will be offered in due time, the senator said.

Pointing out that the federal radio commission has been working without money, due to failure of the last Congress to appropriate any funds for salaries or expenses of the commissioners, Senator Dill expressed the opinion that it is impossible, as yet, to fairly judge the work of the commission.

Senator Dill said he hoped Congress will appropriate funds for the commission soon after it reconvenes next December, and that the tenure of the present commission will be continued for a full calendar year. The present members were appointed by President Coolidge last March to one-year terms.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Atmospheric conditions were just about right for sound travel last night. The court house clock could be heard distinctly as the hours were struck, by residents of the North Hill section. This is an unusual condition, for on ordinary days the clock can only be heard now and then and indistinctly at that.

Frosts of the past week have begun their artistic work on the countryside. While they were not sufficiently heavy to do great damage or to color the leaves on some of the trees, there are noted many tints where the leaves of smaller and less hardy trees and bushes have begun to color. In a short time the well known "riot of color" will be presented on the hills and valleys surrounding this city.

North Mercer street widening, between North and Falls streets is already under way. This work, as well as resurfacing of the block will be completed during the week it is expected so as to be ready for the opening of The Castleton, next week.

Children of the New Castle public schools will be granted a holiday tomorrow, so as to attend the New Castle Fair. Likewise, most of the business houses of the city will close during the afternoon, so that employes can take in the exhibition, All that's needed to make the present fair the greatest ever is the favor of the weather man.

NAVY BAND IS COMING

Famous Band To Play In New Castle On Friday, October 7

ONE OF GREATEST BANDS IN WORLD

There is an interesting bit of history attached to the United States Navy band, which is coming to the Scottish Rite auditorium on Friday, October 7, for matinee and evening concerts.

This organization is heralded as one of the great military bands of the world and has had its status as one of the distinctively national bands of the United States, established by a special act of congress.

The existence of military bands was once explained by Admiral Dewey, the hero of Manila Bay, when he said that music was one of the most important weapons at the disposal of a fighting force. This statement was quoted by another admiral to a committee in congress that was considering the bill that gave the navy band its present official recognition, and a congressman said he would like to have it made clear to him just how a band could be used in sinking an enemy ship.

"The navy does not expect to sink a ship with music," retorted the admiral, "but it does expect to raise the esprit de corps of its fighting men by greater use of this agency."

The navy band, immediately upon its organization following the World war, was attached to the presidential yacht Mayflower. It was a great favorite of the late President Harding—so much so that he took it with him on his memorable trip to Alaska that had such an unhappy ending in San Francisco. This trip was the first time the band heard in concerts outside Washington, and shortly after its return requests began pouring in that the band broadcast some of its programs by radio. This was done, with the result that within two years it had audiences on the air that aggregated ten millions of people, and then there came the demand that the organization be permitted to make concert tours, which was authorized promptly by President Coolidge.

The genesis and building up of this premier musical body of the navy is an interesting story. Prior to 1916 there were three naval bands in Washington—a civilian organization at the navy yard and the ship bands of the Mayflower and the Dolphin, the latter being at the time the official yacht of the navy department. Then the U. S. S. Kansas was ordered out of commission and its band of 16 pieces was detailed to the navy yard and consolidated with the bands of the Mayflower and the Dolphin, the civilian organization passing out of existence.

However, by the time the war was over, expiring enlistments had depleted the ranks of these musicians until there were but 18 men left, and navy officials decided that if the service was to have a band that would set a standard for all the other naval bands something had to be done, and that right quickly.

In the service was a youth who had enlisted as an apprentice when he was a mere boy and in a few years, at the age of 20, had won his chevrons as bandmaster of the U. S. S. Connecticut, the youngest man in the navy to attain such a post. He was ordered to Washington and told to get busy. He began by getting higher ratings and allowances for bandsmen and then started a recruiting tour. He picked up the best men whom he could interest and by 1923 had brought the personnel up to 67. This was the limit set by the navy department and it then became a matter of weeding out men of limited ability and replacing them with better.

The weedin-out process and hard work on the part of the leader brought the band to a state of efficiency where naval officials felt that it was entitled to a definite status as "the" band of the navy, which was brought about by the act of congress that President Coolidge had the pleasure of signing on the day he was first inaugurated in his own right, March 4, 1925. This law also brought his reward to the man who had built up the organization and Charles Benter was designated as leader, with the pay and allowance of a lieutenant in the navy.

Lieut. Benter today is ranked with the famous bandmasters of the world and is the youngest among them, moreover, being only in his 36th year. He is not only an able leader and a brilliant musician, but is a composer of note. One of the best known of his compositions is the "Lure of Alaska", a march which he wrote following the Alaskan tour and dedicated to the memory of President Harding. He has under his direction a splendid military band, enabling him to present concert programs that are varied and balanced to a degree.

Some Local Comment Ideas and Suggestions As Given To News Man

Where I teach we finally have a consolidated school, and to the children who live in the country, I believe it is nothing less than a godsend.

By going to a consolidated school children have so many more advantages than they do when they go to the old fashioned "country school." First one teacher does not have to teach all the grades, which means that teachers can specialize, more or less, on certain grades, which all goes to make it better for the pupils and also for the teacher. Then children get acquainted with more other children of their own age that helps to socialize them.

To the average person it seems that no news is good news, but not to you reporters. Sometimes I wonder how you dig up as much as is printed when things are just jogging along like they are now.

DAVID McKINLEY,

Preparedness seems to be the watchword of young America. At all of the schools and colleges it seems that R. O. T. C. is one of the vital elements in the curricula. Some of the boys rather like it, others, submit under protest and still others rail against it but have to take it because it is a prerequisite to a diploma.

In many of the colleges there are periodic outbursts against military training. I remember one professor saying last year that in the war the Central Powers gained what we lost, that being democracy and the Allied Powers gained what they lost, being militarism. And I am not so sure but what he was right, at that.

HENRY BELMAR,

It is astounding, when one stops to consider, how the motion picture industry has grown in the last ten or fifteen years. When I was in the business that long ago pictures which were more than three reels long were super specials; five reel shows considered the acme of length.

But now—well, let us take the latest French release, "Les Miserables" When it came to America it was something over 20 reels long. Producers were in a quandry. Should they attempt to cut it into ten reels, or should they show it on two nights to the same audience. Finally they cut it down to 12 reels and now it is showing on Broadway.

But the finest of the early shows, I believe barring none was "Life's Shop Window." I guess I have a particular fondness for that show, because you see, I made it.

Egg Laying Contest At Conn. College Keeps Hens Busy

(International News Service)

STORRS, Conn., Sept. 27.—A new record seems to be in the making at the Connecticut state agricultural college here where hens from one end of the country to another are competing in an egg-laying contest of twelve months' duration. The record is being run by hens from Hollywood Poultry Farm, Woodinville, Washington. These hens, white Leghorns, had laid 2,399 eggs in a matter of forty-five weeks, and have to lay but 132 eggs in the remaining seven weeks to equal the contest record of 2,531 eggs, established by hen from C. T. Darby's chicken ranch at North Branch, N. J.

The hens from the state of Washington were laying almost 76 per cent at the end of the forty-fifth week. They and their hen-competitors in the contest had laid a total of 233,290 eggs in 45 weeks. There are 140 pens of ten birds each in the competition, and the average has been 1,666 eggs per bird. The state egg laying contest is now in its sixteenth year.

Leading birds are from Maine, Connecticut, Virginia, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Ohio, Washington, Michigan, Indiana, New York, Missouri, New Jersey, California, Oregon, Pennsylvania, New York, and Canada.

Unofficial Tour Delegation Returns From Russian Tour

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Returning from a month's inspection tour of Russia, the unofficial American Trade Union delegation issued a partial report here Monday, featured by declarations that the Soviets fear a war with Great Britain and are particularly anxious to attract American capital for the development of Russian national resources.

The delegation, headed by James A. Maurer, president of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, asserted they were "most impressed" during their visit to Russia by the "hopeful spirit with which the workers were participating in the life and activities of the country." The delegation reported that 14,000,000 Russians belonged to cooperative societies which were handling nearly half of the retail trade in Russia. A complete report of the trip will be published within two weeks.

The partial report found one dissenting voice, James William Fitzpatrick, president of the American Artists Federation of New York, refusing to sign it. Fitzpatrick would not comment on his action as the delegation landed from the Leviathan.

Other members of the delegation included John Brophy of the United Mine Workers, Pittsburgh; Frank L. Palmer of the typographical union, Denver, and Albert F. Coole of the All-American Cooperative commission, Cleveland. The delegation was accompanied by seven college professors, including J. B. Brehner, Columbia; Jerome Davis, Yale; Paul H. Douglas, Chicago; Carlos Israels, Columbia; R. G. Tugwell, Columbia; Robert W. Dunn, New York, and Arthur Fisher, Chicago, who acted as technical adviser. They will issue a report later.

The labor delegation visited all the large cities of Russia, the steel regions in the Urals, the Denetz coal and iron district, the Baku oil fields, Crimea, the trans-Caucasion republics and the Ukrainian agricultural belt.

"The delegation found that manufacturing production for the current fiscal year is slightly above the prewar level," the report stated, "and that it is increasing steadily. The real wages of the city workers are also higher than they were before the war. The workers also receive a considerable addition in the form of protection given by the extensive system of social insurance, vacations with pay and the free rents which are given to a considerable percentage of their number, unemployment is, however, a very serious problem.

"The relative importance of private trade is decreasing because of the growth of the cooperatives, which now include 14,000,000 members and which are handling nearly half of the retail trade of the country. The government stores handle an additional 15 per cent."

The American visitors said they found the 10,000,000 trade unionists in Russian "one of its most powerful forces" but denied they were controlled by the Soviet government.

Swimming Classes Beginning.

Call the Y. W. C. A. now and register in the swimming classes. If able to swim in water over your head, join the advanced class. If unable to swim join the beginners' class.

No exercise is finer for the body than swimming. The movements stretch and pull all the muscles, keep the figure trim, stimulate a torpid circulation, refreshing the body and mind.

Every girl, every woman should learn to swim. This sport serves a two-fold purpose. It is a splendid exercise for the body, as stated above, and it is a fine recreation.

Nothing in the world peps one up so as a good swim.

Call the "Y. W." now and register.

Health Department.

Now is the time to get ready for the winter, to safeguard your health and to keep your body in that physically fit condition, the condition which it requires during the activities of the summer.

Usher In Jewish New Year With Most Solemn Service; Rabbi Menkes Is Speaker

A large crowd of worshippers gathered at Temple Israel on Highland avenue last night to usher in the Jewish New Year with solemn services.

The traditional music of the Holyday was rendered in a very effective and touching manner and greatly enhanced the devotional spirit of the congregation.

Rabbi Menkes chose for his topic: "The Fabric of Life." He said in part:

This twilight hour which separates time from time or rather unites the past with the future comes to us laden with a message of utmost importance. Like—

"A flower unblown; a Book unread;
A Tree with fruit unharvested;
A Path untrod; a House whose rooms
Lack yet the heart's divine perfumes;
A Landscape whose wide border lies
In silent shade 'neath silent skies;
A wondrous fountain yet unsealed;
A Casket with its gifts concealed—
This is the year that for you waits
Beyond tomorrow's mystic gates."

In Talmudic lore there are two very beautiful legends connected with the New Year that may perhaps sound just a bit quaint and childish to the sophisticated mind of today, yet hold a vital kernel of truth when properly understood.

One story refers to a very heated argument that once arose among the angelic hosts, as to the exact date of the New Year. The Angel of Peace true to his duties suggested to the excited opponents that they better take up the matter with the Creator Himself. Imagine their surprise when the Almighty replied: "If you must know the exact day on which the New Year falls, you must go down to the sons of man, for they alone have the power to definitely set its date." The thought deposited in this fascinating bit of poetry is plain and very striking. It was man and man alone that is responsible for such division of time as weeks and years; nature does not herald them by any special phenomenon, it was the inner urge of man that prompted him to set aside and establish a certain particular day as the Birthday of all creation. But what was the motive behind that impulse? Man felt the inner need for a day, when he would stop from his daily pursuits and give himself over to reflection, to introspection, to self-examination; when he would give an honest account of himself to himself; when he would lay bare his very soul before conscience acting as the jury and the Almighty presiding as Judge.

Closely bound up with this thought is the other talmudic story, which pictures life as an immense Book, in which we write down our daily acts; our meritorious deeds on one side of the ledger, our misdeeds on the other, and the New Year's day is the time, when we strike a balance, which very frequently does not appear complimentary to ourselves.

Such conceptions may seem crude on the surface, but they impress us with the urgent necessity for each one of us to stop and think of the true values of life and its underlying principles.

The underlying tenor of most of our prayers is the prayer for life, ardently do we pray "Remember us unto life, inscribe us in the book of life" but we ought to link with them the prayer of the prophet who said "Give me understanding that I may live."

We need a deeper and more thorough going understanding of life in all its aspects and relationships.

The speaker then analyzed man as an individual, pointed out his status in organized society and the duties devolving upon him because of this inevitable relationship, and appealed for the kind of a life, that will benefit humanity at large.

"I ask not wealth, but power to take
And use the things I have aright
Not years, but wisdom that shall make
My life, a profit and delight."

Growing Children
sometimes require a tonic as do their elders

"Dear, I want you to know now that S.S.S. has been used for over 100 years—it is made from fresh roots and herbs—growing children sometimes need a tonic, as do their elders—it is helping you, and I want you to take it regularly before each meal."

Try S.S.S. and you will be surprised how quickly your appetite improves. If you are tired, rundown and listless you owe it to yourself and family to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build up red blood corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the body is nourished. S.S.S. is time-tried and reliable, and is unequalled for restoring strength and vitality.

From youth to later years S.S.S. is a proven tonic—give it and take it when a tonic is indicated.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Delone Is Found Guilty Of Charge Of Embezzlement

Harrisburg Business Man Found Guilty On Twelve Counts

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 27.—Charles A. Delone, Harrisburg business man, was found guilty to twelve counts charging conspiracy and aiding to embezzle in connection with the recent $700,000 shortage in the funds of the Commonwealth Trust Company, by a jury in county court here today.

The jury was out twelve hours, returning verdicts of guilty in each of the twelve counts against Delone.

A. S. Banmiller, former cashier in the bank, who has already pleaded no defense to charges of embezzlement in the case, went on trial on conspiracy charges shortly after Delone's case went to the jury.

League Assembly Adjourns Today

Eighth League Of Nations Assembly Brought To Close Today

(International News Service)

GENEVA, Sept. 27.—The eighth League of Nations assembly adjourned today after having completed discussions on all matters on its agenda.

Adjournment was taken following a long debate on the question of codification of international law and after the assembly had adopted a resolution submitted by the Greek delegation providing for the convocation of the first conference for codification at The Hague in 1929.

M. Politis, Greek delegate, speaking in support of his resolution, declared that the codification of international law was designed to "stabilize relations between peoples," and said this conference for codification would be the first of a series which would continue perhaps during the life of this generation.

President Guani in a lengthy speech at the closing of the session praised the work of the league, but counseled "patience, work and hope."

Probably the most important achievements of the eighth assembly were the accomplishment of a general agreement among Great Britain, France and Germany on procedure for studying national security and international disagreement, and the decision to call a conference for the codification of international law. The agreement of M. Aristide Briand, French foreign minister, and Dr. Gustave Stresemann, German foreign minister, upon resolutions calling for joint study of security and disarmament, was one of the sensations of the present meeting of the league.

M. Briand left for Paris after the assembly adjourned. He expressed himself as "profoundly satisfied with what has been accomplished."

Removing Rails In Cedar Street

New Rails Will Be Laid; City To Resurface Street

Improvement of the Pennsylvania-Ohio street car line in Cedar street is under way and it is hoped by company officials to complete the project this fall, though weather conditions may prevent it.

C. C. Coulthard, superintendent, stated today that one rail has been removed between Mahoning and Swansea avenue and it will not be long until both rails have been taken up between Mahoning avenue and Clayton street. New rails will be installed at a grade which will conform to the height desired by the city, which intends to resurface Cedar street next spring.

FIREMEN SHOW REAL APPETITES

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 27—The question isn't "what does a fireman eat?" but "how much does a fireman eat?"

Seven thousand members of the New Jersey State Firemen's Association closed their annual convention here yesterday, and today it was revealed that they devoured:

Twenty-one thousand sandwiches.

Several tons of other food.

Eleven and eighty-six-hundredth miles of bread.

Slightly lass than a mile and a half of ham and cheese.

About a mile of apples.

More than a half mile of cakes (much more).

A mile of pickles.

Half a mile of olives.

More than a mile of plums.

And the lunch boxes placed end to end would have reached two and seventh-tenth miles.

The trouble with the rule that might makes right is that it often makes right wrong.

Y. W. Swimming Classes Will Begin Next Week

Other Gym Classes Will Also Start During October At Y. W. C. A.

Why is it women get old before they get what they should? Why is it they get stiff jointed, weary, tired and jerky in their movements at an early age? Here is the cause: Lack of intelligent and appropriate exercise.

Just look around and note the matured woman who still retains her figure, who still walks with a spring in her step and who still displays pliancy in her movements. She is the woman who has taken beneficial care of her body. She has not always followed the path of least resistance but has to a certain degree continued with the activities of her childhood.

Children too, would lose all grace and pliancy of movement if they sat around and moved slowly as many older people do.

And what better exercise than swimming? The world over persons will advocate swimming.

So, why not swim to keep fit? Why not swim to regain and sustain muscular freedom and grace?

Join a Y. W. swimming class and refresh both mind and body. Call the Y. W. and register. Swimming begins Monday, October 3. No time like the present. Do it now.

Other Classes.

All Y. W. gym classes are now open for registration. Classes in basketball, volley ball, tennis, reducing, little girls' gym, individual and corrective work, etc.

Call the Y. W., 748, and ask about our classes. We have one for you. If not we'll try to get one.

Work Not Likely On Volant Road Until Next Spring

District engineer of the State Highway Department states that it is not likely that any actual work will be accomplished on the construction of the Eastbrook-Volant cement road this fall.

A certain part has already been approved by the department at Harrisburg and another portion should be improved so that the final survey and plans could be made but time would not be sufficient for the letting of the contract before late November. Thus it is likely that everything will be in readiness so that actual construction can be started early in the spring as soon as the weather permits.

Mercer-Sharon Road Open On October 5

Mercer-Sharon road will be officially opened on October 5 according to J. Harvey Robinson, district engineer of the State Highway Department.

The road has been open for traffic as far west as the McDowell farm for some time but commencing with October 5 it will be thrown open to all traffic. At present a good detour by ashed road allows traffic over a good route.

This road when opened will make travel pleasant from Sharon to the county seat at Mercer and much cross country traffic which traveled by this route before the construction was started in the spring will again travel by this route.

Snores His Way Into County Jail

(International News Service)

YORK, Pa., Sept. 27.—Noah K. Medwig, 55, Glenn Rock farmer, literally snored himself into a 30-day jail sentence here. Medwig became intoxicated, police said, and parked his automobile along a curb of a street in York to sleep off the effects.

Unfortunately for him, Medwig picked a parking place directly in front of a motorcycle policeman's residence. It was 2 o'clock in the morning when the policeman, unable to sleep because of Medwig's loud snoring, donned his uniform and placed the farmer under arrest for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Mayor E. S. Hugentugler ruled the prisoner's snoring constituted disorderly conduct and Medwig was committed to jail for 30 days.

Church Steeple Hit Four Times

(International News Service)

MANCHESTER, Pa., Sept. 27.—Trustees of the Union church here refuse to believe the old adage that lightning never strikes twice in the same place.

As a matter of fact lightning has struck the church steeple four times and the trustees have ordered the steeple cut down to the belfry, thus doing away with a conspicuous target for lightning.

Start Widening Of Mercer Street

Woods & Golder have lost no time in commencing work on the city contract to improve Falls and Mercer streets and early today Henry Golder had a force of men widening North Mercer between Falls and North streets.

A large tree which stands on the east side of North Mercer, north of North street is being removed and according to Mr. Golder some trees in Falls street also will be removed.

"I want to get the streets around the hotel in good condition in time for the convention of the State Sabbath School Association" said Golder.

Widow Changes Story Of Murder

Now Declares She Believes Doctor Was Slain By Drug Addict

(International News Service)

HAMMONTON, N. J., Sept. 27.—Suddenly forsaking her insistent declarations that her husband, Dr. William Lilliendahl, aged narcotic expert, was slain by negro hold-up men who halted the couple in an automobile near here on September 15, Mrs. Margaret Lilliendahl, the widow, expressed the belief in an official statement late Monday that the murder was inspired by drug addicts.

"I am now convinced," said the statement, issued through counsel, "that my husband was slain by a drug addict, seeking revenge. If I had his books here I could show you the names of many gunmen in them. He treated all kinds of people, refusing aid to no one. I am proud of the way he helped people."

Mrs. Lilliendahl and Willis Beach, a neighbor, are held under bond as material witnesses in the case. From the day of the murder until the issuance of her statement today, Mrs. Lilliendahl had clung to the story that her husband was shot to death by two negroes whose only purpose was robbery.

ACTRESS AND FLYER ESCAPE DEATH VALLEY

Forced Down On Way To Fight; Stranded Five Days In Desert

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—Marion Mack, film actress, and Capt. Frank Tommick, her pilot, flew into Yarmo, Cal., in their missing plane Monday, the Union Pacific was informed by its agent at that place today.

The flyers, according to the Yarmo railroad agent, said they had been forced down by engine trouble several hours after leaving here last Wednesday morning for the Chicago fight and had landed in Death Valley.

They had been prevented from taking off again because one of their wheels blew a tire in landing, but they finally got their plane into the air this morning.

It was stated they have telegraphed to Los Angeles for a new wheel and plan to fly here from Yarmo when their plane is repaired.

The railroad agent stated they showed some signs of exhaustion and were rather thirsty when they reached Yarmo, but apparently they had suffered no serious ill effects from their Death Valley sojourn of almost five days.

Airplanes had been searching the desert regions for several days for them.

Still, the more you see of some people the more you believe in birth control.

They took complete control for the evening. At a convenient time R. M. After rather abundant refreshments for the lateness of the hour all departed with conquering smiles.

Mrs. Earl Carroll Seriously Burned

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Attempting, single-handed, to extinguish a fire in her 12th-floor apartment here late Monday, Mrs. Earl Carroll, wife of the theatrical producer incarcerated in the federal prison at Atlanta, for perjury, suffered serious burns.

When she saw that the awning outside her bedroom window was burning, Mrs. Carroll opened the window and the flames immediately set fire to the curtains. She doused the flames with a pitcher of water, which proved ineffectual, and then tried to beat out the blaze with an expensive fur-trimmed coat.

The cries of a laborer on a nearby roof resulted in a fire alarm and firemen put out the flames after the curtains, the coat and a rug, which had also become ignited, had been damaged to an estimated extent of $6,000.

PENNSYLVANIA LEADS NATION

Takes First Place In Total Of Electric Power Generated By Fuels

Pennsylvania now holds first place among the states in total of electric power generated by fuels and second place in total electric power generated in the United States, according to the Pennsylvania public service information committee. That announcement was made at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Electric association by Philip H. Chase of the Philadelphia Electric company, president of the association.

In the past five years, according to Mr. Chase, the electric industry in Pennsylvania has doubled itself. At the end of 1926 the industry had 1,781,000 customers in the state, an increase of 363,000 over 1925. In that same period the sales price of electricity per kilowatt-hour decreased 12 per cent due to increased efficiency in operation and in fuel use. During the periods from 1919 to 1926 economy in the use of fuel showed a gain of 39 per cent.

Rural electrification in the state made great progress during the past year, due chiefly to more uniform methods of transmission approved by the Pennsylvania public service commission in a report known as general order No. 28. The order was not effective until March 1, 1927, so electrification was slowed up for several months.

In spite of that, 547 miles of rural electrification lines were added in the first eight months of this year as compared with 874 miles in the 12 months of 1926. The new lines reached 1,925 farms in eight months as compared with a total of 2,848 farms in 1926 and 12,800 customers were added as against 17,296 during the whole of last year.

Louis C. Reis Gets Promotion

Former New Castle Man Made Vice President Of The Minnesota Steel Company

Word has been received here that Louis C. Reis of Duluth, Minn., formerly of this city, has been promoted to the position of vice president of the Minnesota Steel company. Mr. Reis had been general superintendent of this company for the past seven years.

In his promotion to the vice presidency Mr. Reis takes the position of S. R. Sheldon who has been advanced to the presidency of the company, a position held by the late Judge E. R. Gary.

At the time Mr. Reis left New Castle 15 years ago he was employed as turn foreman in the Carnegie Steel company machine shops here under the present general superintendent, R. J. Tully.

The former New Castle man has been steadily promoted since going to Duluth and his friends here are certain that he has merited his advancement in every way.

NEW BEDFORD HOME ROBBED

The articles missed following the visit of the thieves included a 12-guage shotgun a good ring and a suit of clothing.

Two men believed to be hoboes were seen running away from the place and are believed to be the persons responsible for the theft. One was carrying a shopping bag.

The city police co-operated in the effort to locate the thieves who were believed to have come to this city.

MOTOMETER TAKEN

James Williamson of Canton, O., reported to the police last night that while his automobile was parked on South Jefferson street the motometer of the machine was stolen.

If Stomach is Sour

Hereafter instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

Better Than Soda

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

Try a 25c Bottle

Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug-store. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

Ministers Name Program Committee For Coming Year

Rev. S. B. Copeland, pastor of the Third United Presbyterian church, was the speaker at the meeting of the New Castle Ministerial Association Monday at the Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Copeland read an excellent paper on "Evangelism", which was very favorably commented upon by the ministers.

Rev. Blackwood of Pittsburgh was present and gave a short talk. A special feature of the meeting was the naming of a new program committee for the coming year. The committee appointed was: Rev. George M. Landis of the First Baptist church, chairman; Dr. C. B. Wingerd, pastor of Central Presbyterian church, and Dr. C. H. Holcomb of the First Christian church.

Selections by a colored male quartet were given at the close of the meeting.

Claim Finger Prints Made Of Man Dead For Past 15 Years

By WILLIAM P. CARNEY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Sept. 27.—With an invitation to skeptics to "laugh that one off," Malcom Bird, research officer of the American Society for Psychical Research today exhibited what he described as spirit finger prints in wax made this year by the teleplasm hand of Walter Stinson of Boston, who has been dead for 15 years.

The exhibit was placed before the international conference for psychic research, meeting at Sorbonne University.

Stinson was a brother of Mrs. L. R. G. Crandon, professionally known as the "Medium Margrey," well-known psychic medium of Boston.

Bird showed stereophotographic slides of Margery invoking the teleplasm hand of her brother, and other slides showing the hand actually making the prints in wax. Bird declared the Bertillon experts of the Boston police department had examined the wax prints and had certified that they were the same as those left by Stinson on the handle of his razor the day before he died.

"They can't laugh off teleplasm for ectoplasm, and spirits for ghosts," Bird declared, speaking to International News Service. "This is our third annual congress, and we now have the academic recognition of science."

NEW FIGHT ARENA FOR NEW YORK CITY

Tex Rickard Is Planning Project

New Fight Arena To Seat 130,000, Says Veteran Promoter

ASSURES METROPOLIS OF NEXT BIG BOUT

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The next fight for the heavyweight championship of the world will be fought in a New York ring!

That much was determined today when Tex Rickard broke down bitterly on his plaid vest and admitted that plans for a local fight arena, to be used solely for boxing, were completed and that he would announce its site some time during the present week. The arena, he said, would seat 130,000 and would be ready for occupancy by all or any part of that total by next July.

Rickard didn't say that the structure would house the next heavyweight championship. He didn't have to. If it will be ready by next July, it will get the bout for several reasons.

One of these is that it will be Rickard's own, with no overhead, rental or "nut", as we say at the Teu Hour. A second is that the understanding is that New York has strongly intimated that it is willing to take the curse of its $27.50 limit and will go even as high as $40 in order to get the show. A third is that Rickard must have been assured that boxing is here to stay or he wouldn't have started the arena at all.

Once started, of course, it must be finished in time to get a fight that will go far toward clearing off the expenses of its construction.

Rickard Holds Aces

The arena, as Rickard explained it, will rise in sheer banks of seats from the ring and therefore, will give every addict a clear view of what is going on, provided anything does. He doesn't say that such a structure would give him a chance to range his ringside seats as far back, or rather up, as the astigmatized eye can reach.

However, it will give him that chance and it means that, if the next championship fight has anything on the ball at all, it probably will outdraw Chicago's record gate.

Ie goes without saying—new arena or none—that every wire will be pulled to bring the fight to this city, which has seen no heavyweight championship since the Dempsey-Firpo brawl of 1923. It goes without saying also, that Rickard wants to bring the fight here, for he knows that New York is ripe for the killing.

It merely remained for him to get certain assurances and he is supposed to have gotten them.

Of course, he holds all the aces as far as the principals are concerned. He has Sharkey under contract over a period covering next summer; he has leg chains on Paulino and Heeney.

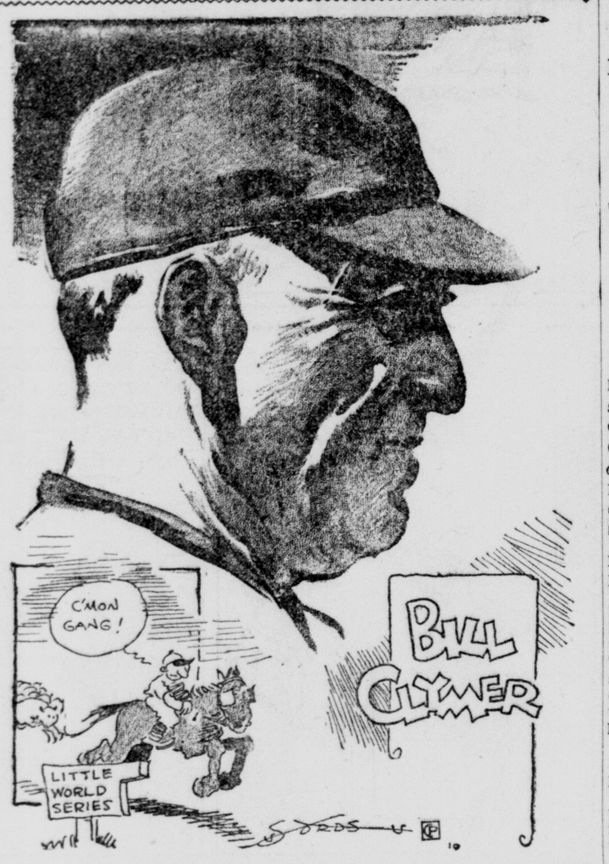

And today he declared openly that Tunney was ready to play ball with him at a moment's notice or none at all. Tunney was due to arrive from Chicago today and, with that million dollars in his reticule, probably will stand ready to "yes" Rickard on that one.

"Tunney has let me know that anything I do will be all right with him," Rickard declared.

As for Dempsey, the promoter would like to keep him boxing this winter, which would be very good for Dempsey and even better for the promoter. Anyhow, Rickard will try to sign him up for a fight in the Garden in December and another in February or March. Risko, Maloney, Paulino, and Heeney are prospective indoor opponents. This would leave Sharkey for the big outdoor shot before the next championship.

SORDS POINTS

Hats Off To Buffalo Bill, He's Good

By JACK SORDS

Mr. Bill Clymer, a veteran man of baseball, is about the most popular man in Buffalo, N. Y., as he gets his team in shape for the coming junior world series between his club, the winner of the International league pennant, and the champions of the American Association.

Buffalo Bill Clymer got to-gether a very fine flinging corps for the Bisons and as a result presented the city of Buffalo with its fourth pennant in the International League. The Herd won out in 1904, 1915 and 1916.

Best of the twirlers was Leo Mangum, ex-White Sox. Chester Falk also proved a tower of strength. Hit batting average was .500. Mangum has been sold to the Giants. Other Bison aces are Hollingsworth, Stryker, Proffitt, Ogden, Wiltse, Russell and Leverenz.

Clymer also builded up a speedy infield this season, the great defense put up by the double-play combination of Cohen-to-Malone-to-Bissonette gave Buffalo fans a big kick all year. Then there's Eddie Taylor, who plays a whiz of a game at third, and can do his stuff at short, too.

Outfielder Al Tyson of the Bisons was so good that he has been sold to Brooklyn for $20,000. Tysen led the league in hitting.

Wily Bill Clymer, now that he has the pennant and is all set for the post season series, isn't resting on his laurels. He is building for next season. Two players already have been obtained from Reading.

Buffalo has much to thank Clymer for besides the pennant and some splendid baseball throughout the season. His team has proved to be the most profitable Buffalo has ever had from every point of view.

Dempsey Ready To Enter Ring Again After Short Rest

Ex-Champion, With His Wife, Stops At Ambassador Hotel In New York

Tunney Due To Reach Metropolis Today; Plans For Hunting Trip

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 27. — Jack Dempsey, affable and philosophic, has slipped quietly into New York and Gene Tunney, the other principal in Chicago's recent ring extravaganza, is due here today. This is the champion's home town and his friends from Greenwich Village are preparing to give Tunney a real reception.

Dempsey, accompanied by his wife, Estelle Taylor, the screen star, stopped at the Ambassador.

Except for a cut over the left eye, bleckened with healing preparation, Dempsey looked none the worse for wear as a result of his encounter with Tunney last Thursday night. He seemed to be in good spirits but was disinclined to hold a post mortem on the fight, referring the interviewer to his manager, Leo P. Flynn.

Asked if he would fight again, Dempsey looked surprised and replied: "Certainly."

"I'm in shape now, with two fights under my belt," he added. "I could go in there again almost any time, after a short rest."

Dempsey didn't want to discuss the alleged "long count" the referee gave Tunney, saying: "I'm not alibi-ing," and "talk to Flynn about that." He said, yes, there would be an appeal to the National Boxing Association to reverse the decision but he indicated he thought it was only a formality.

The ex-champion expects to remain here for ten days and then return with his wife to California.

Tunney is due here today from Cleveland, where he spent the week end visiting Leonard C. Hanna, a friend. Tunney is expected to make his headquarters at the Breslin Hotel following his custom since becoming champion. Tunney's stay in New York will be short, however, as he plans to go to the Maine woods soon for a hunting trip.

Trying To Land Jack For Rocco

"If we can get Jack Renault at the right terms we will match him against Emmett Rocco for a bout early in October at Centennial field" said a member of the New Castle ball club board of directors today. Negotiations after being dropped yesterday were resumed last night. If the bout it staged the directors say that Mike Salmen also will be put on the card, probably with Romeo Pacelli of New Castle who has been making good showings at Erie.

Mars To Play Here Saturday

New Castle High Hopes To Defeat Butler Countians Here Saturday

Mars High will be the attraction here Saturday at Ben Franklin High field against the New Castle High fotball team. The game this week will start at 2:30 o'clock, Eastern Standard time.

It will be recalled that Mars High battled the locals to a 0-0 deadlock here last year in the opening game of the year, and they have hopes of downing the Red and Black this season, is the word that comes from the Butler county town.

Coach Bridenbaugh excused the New Castle High gridders yesterday afternoon. The squad gathered in the dressing room while Bridenbaugh went over the mistakes that cropped out in the Franklin High game.

Practice for the gridders will be resumed today at Franklin fleld. The locals were mighty fortunate Saturday in the fact that no more players were laid on the "shelf" with injuries. Mooney, Sherer and Burns have fully recovered from their injuries.

Whether or not Paul Reider, the young quarterback, will be back in the game Saturday is not known. Reider has been nursing his injured ankle carefully and hopes to return in time to battle against Mars.

The Game's Greatest — By Feg Murray

Well, well, look who's here! If it isn't our old friend, that hardy perennial Tyrus Raymond Cobb, champion of record breakers and greatest ball player in the history of the game. Today he appears in New York in the last game of the season between the Athletics and the Yankees, and the year's final game may be the last public appearance of one of the most remarkable athletes in the world.

More than 22 years as a player in the American League. Wotta man! Pop Anson and Cy Young both played 22 years, but Ty is in his 23d season. Hans Wagner played in 2,785 games, but Ty has played in more than 2,900. Pop Anson batted over .300 for 20 years and Hans Wagner reached that figure 17 seasons in a row, but Ty has done the same for 22 years in succession! Hans Wagner went to bat 10,427 times, but Ty has passed that mark by more than 600 times.

Old bow-legged Hans scored 1,740 runs, but Ty is about 450 runs ahead of that mark. "The Flying Dutchman" knocked out 3,430 base hits, but "The Georgia Peach" has added more than 600 to that record. Ty has also made the most singles, the most triples, the most long hits, the most extra bases on long hits and the most total bases of any player in history!

Nor is that all. Cobb's .420 average in 1911 was the highest batting percentage ever made in the American League, unless you count Sisler's .420 in 1922, which was really .00017 points higher. Cobb shares two records with Jess Burkett and Rogers Hornsby, those of batting .400 or better in three years and of reaching that figure two years in succession, but he shares with no one his feat of scoring one hundred or more runs in 12 different years and of leading his league in batting a dozen times, nine of them in succession. Wotta man this 40-year-old youngster is!

Feg Murray Says—

No, Esmeralda, when "Murderers' Row" goes to bat they do not go in row boats.

British women swimmers scored a notable success in the European championships held recently at Bologna.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—It was Miljus' turn to take a fall out of the Cubs yesterday and he did, pitching the Pirates to victory, 1 to 0, in a game abbreviated by rain. The game lasted six innings.

Glenn Wright turned in the only run necessary to win in the second inning. The shortstop singled to left and went to second on Grantham's single and scored on Harris' safe blow to center.

Miljus held the Cubs to four hits, while Nehf was touched for seven safeties in the six innings. After a wait of half an hour at the end of the sixth the game was terminated. The box score:

Westminster Prepares For Buffalo Contest

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON Pa., Sept. 27.—With the Westminster varsity eleven proving itself a worthy foe for the Carnegie Tech grid machine in the week-end encounter and the accounts of the game now on record in the football files, Dwight "Dike" Beede, Blue and White football mentor ordered the resumption of practice today and the squad is determined to chalk up its first victory of the season next Saturday when it battles with the University of Buffalo on Rotary field, Buffalo, N. Y.

Two men were injured in the lid-lifting tilt with the Skibos at Youngstown last Saturday. Captain Jimmy Lauder sustained an injury to one of his knees and Adrian Dible, new quarterback, received a blow on his leg that caused him trouble. However the injuries are not serious and both of these men will probably be in the line-up against the Buffalo outfit on Saturday.

Norton Is Having Difficulty With Junior High Squad

Lack Of Material May Cause Two Teams To Be Fused Into One This Year

Coach Norton is having difficulty with the Ben Franklin High teams this year. The reason seems to be the lack of interest shown by the boys in reporting for practice.

According to Principal Frank L. Burton of the Ben Franklin school, there is a possibility that the plan of having two teams at the Junior High school this year will be dropped. It develops that there is not sufficient interest shown by the boys.

It was originally intended to have two teams, to be known as the Shop team and the Junior High team. The Junior High boys have responded rather well and have a squad of over 25 candidates out for training. The shop boys responded well at first, but the squad has dwindled to about 12 or 13 players and there is a movement under way to discontinue the shop team and to merge the two teams into one team, to be known as the Ben Franklin High team.

Coach Norton could not be reached yesterday afternoon for confirmation of this action, but it is expected that such measures will be taken within the next few days.

The Ben Franklin team is arranging a schedule for this year, but they will await the outcome of the two-team affair before signing up any games.

With the opening meet with Geneva College at Beaver Falls, Pa., on October 8, less than two weeks ahead, the Blue and White harriers under the leadership of Captain "Wes" Rose, former New Castle runner, have settled down to intensive training.

Graduate Manager A. A. McDonald issued the completed cross country schedule today.

New Wilmington To Play Sharon Team Saturday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Sept. 27.—Reporting to practice yesterday bruised and sore from Saturday's tilt with Ellwood City, the grid combine of the local high was run through light training by Coach Wiggins. Although none of the Blue and Gold stars were badly hurt in the Ellwood game, some of them will not be able to take part in intensive training until the middle of the week.

With Captain Davis still ineligible to play, the light college town team will again have a hard game in stacking up against the Sharon eleven here this Saturday. Though the New Wilmington gridders held the Sharon team to a 13-6 score last year, it is doubtful if Coach Wiggins will be able to duplicate the feat with his present combine, which at the most averages not over 130 pounds.

Police Report Bad Check Is Passed

Another bad check artist is busy in the city. The police urge the merchants and others to again be on their guard in the matter of cashing checks, especially those presented by persons unknown to them or persons whose finacial standing is not well known.

The latest check to be passed that proved bad is that reported by R. E. Ferree of East Washington street, a clerk in the Ferver Army and Navy store in the city building.

It was for something like $21. The man passing it purchased a sweater, a cap and a tie and received the balance in cash.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

The National league club that faces the New York Yankees in this year's world series must produce a brand of pitching that will overcome a two-run handicap in batting strength or be sunk.

This handicap is estimated on the basis of the run scoring power of the Yankees, the other clubs in the American league and the pennant contenders in the National league.

Recent team averages of the National league show that there has been very little difference in the total number of runs scored by the various clubs. A total of approximately 80 runs covers the difference between the total number scored by the Cubs, ranking third in run getting, and the Pirates. The Giants were listed between the two.

In the American league the Yankees amble along with over 900 runs scored—an average of close to seven per game. Only two other clubs in the league, the Athletics and Tigers, had scored over 700 runs. The other clubs ranged from less than 600, scored by the Red Sox, to within a few runs of 700.

The average difference in run-scoring ability between the Yanks and contending teams can be set roughly at 250 runs, or nearer two runs per game than one run.

In other words, the Yankees have plunged their way to the pennant by outscoring the opposition day in and day out, regardless of the pitching. Pennock, Hoyt, Shawkey, Pipgras, Shocker and Ruether have had the advantage of a two-run margin to pitch on most of the time.

Could Meadows, Hill, Aldridge and Kremer, for instance, check the Yankee sluggers enough to whittle down this run-scoring handicap for the Pittsburgh batters?

The Yankees' run-scoring leadership is accounted for, of course, in the main by the home run activities of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. When two husky gentlemen get into the habit of making a fair average of the base hits good for the circuit the sum total is bound to mount up.

The Pirates lack the long driving power of the Yankee guns. Bush's men have ranked fourth in home run clouting. They are leading the league by a big margin, however, in base hits. They have been fighting it out with the Cardinals for the lead in hammering triples, however, and rank at the top in two-base hits. They lead the league in sacrifice hitting as well, which explains their offensive strength.

The Pirates do their best hitting in their own ballwick, it may be stated. They "play" the right field stand and the long center field garden, where a rolling hit is good for a home run to a fast runner. Just how the Yankees will "play" these same peculiarities is problematical, of course. One American league park looked like another to them, however.

ARRESTED AGAIN

Frank Cabbage, arrested last Saturday on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, was arrested Monday again by Officer Nelson on a call. He was acting in a disorderly manner, was under the influence of liquor and had been thrown from his boarding house at 100 South Jefferson street. His case is being investigated by the police.

Youthful Texas Girl Faces Trial On Arson Charge

(International News Service)

GEORGETOWN, Tex., Sept. 27.—Depending upon her lawyer-husband, Otis Rogers, to fight successfully the state charge of arson pending against her, Rebecca Bradley Rogers, alleged "flapper bandit", went to court today in a confident mood. A venire was summoned late yesterday and today a jury was to be chosen to hear the case on the specific charge she set fire to a building in Round Rock, Tex., last winter.

"Becky" Bradley, a 17-year-old Texas University co-ed, came into prominence last fall when she was arrested in connection with the robbery of a bank at Buda, Tex. Several days after the girl's arrest it became known she was married to Rogers, a young Amarillo, Tex., attorney.

The burning of the Round Rock building preceded by one day the robbery of the Farmers National Bank of Buda, Hays county, for which Mrs. Rogers also stands indicted.

Light Workout For Grove City

GROVE CITY, Pa., Sept. 27.—The workout which Coach Berry gave his Grove City college football squad yesterday afternoon was very light compared with the practice periods of the preceding two weeks. His players are all very tired and the Crimson mentor wishes to rest his boys up as much as possible before the game with the University of Pittsburgh next Saturday. Coach Berry has not any hope of beating the strong Pitt Panther team. He only wishes to hold the Panthers to a comparatively low score.

Berry is well pleased with the promises his first string players have made since the opening game. He is particularly pleased with the spirit shown by Captain Jim McConnell. McConnell promises to be a real leader for the Crimson team this year. Coach Berry has him calling the plays from a huddle. In fact all of the men on the squad have been showing a fine spirit.

Pennant Race Grows Hotter

Pittsburgh Pirates Need Three More Victories To Clinch Flag

CARDINALS ARE PROVING DANGEROUS

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—With the Giants virtually eliminated, and the Cardinals trailing the leaders by two games, the speeding Pirates were on the outskirts of Pennantville today. Both Pittsburgh and St. Louis have four more games to play and the Pirates can clinch the pennant by winning three out of four even if the Cardinals make a clean sweep.

If St. Louis loses one game, Pittsburgh can capture the flag by winning only two out of four. The Giants now 3½ games behind the Pirates, will get no more of a tie with the Bucs if they win five straight while the Pirates are losing three out of four.

The Giants passed out of the picture yesterday when they were defeated by the Phillies, which is one way of losing a pennant. The New Yorkers, who had polished off the Pirates in three out of four games, were beaten 9 to 2 by Frank Ulrich of the Phils. The Slowtown sluggers kayoed Burleigh Grimes, snapping his winning streak of thirteen games, and collected seventeen hits in all.

Rookie John Miljus again won for the Pirates, taking a 1 to 0 duel from Arthur Nehf of the Cubs. Singles by Wright, Grantham and Harris scored the only run of the game, which was stopped by rain in the sixth inning.

The battling Cardinals nosed out the Reds in the thirteenth, 3 to 1, as Haines outgamed Luque. Ford's error let in the winning run.

Washing clinched third place in American League by pasting the Red Sox twice, 4 to 2 and 11 to 1. The Sox became so inflated with pride from pulling a triple play in the opener that they blew up in the nightcap and made ten errors.

Billings, Detroit's collegiate pitcher, held the Indians to three hits and trimmed them 2 to 1. Wyatt hit a homer for Cleveland.

Bessemer Trips Petersburg 5-3

Rodenbaugh Bests Hoover In Pitching Duel At Ohio City, Black Star Hitter

Bessemer, late of the Lawrence county league, journeyed to Petersburg, O., recently and defeated the Petersburg team by a score of 5 to 3.

The game was a pitchers' battle between Hoover and Rodenbaugh with the latter having the best of the argument, allowing but eight hits. Bessemer gleaned 13 hits off Hoover. Alex Black was the feature hitter of the game with four safe swats, including a pair of doubles. Huff, Swinehart and Rodenbaugh also hit timely.

A crowd estimated at close to 500 witnessed the game.

If arrangements can be made the National Radiator Colored Stars will play the Bessemer team at Petersburg on next Sunday afternoon, said Business Manager Louis "Pick" Glitch today.

Man Is Killed Another Wounded By Detroit Thugs

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Sept. 27.—A bootleggers war, police believed today, was responsible for the barrage of bullets that last night killed Tommy Shea, 24, alias Edward Casey and wounded Edward "Ted" Baldwin, 29, of 5646 Kenmore avenue, Chicago, in the shoulder.

Baldwin accompanied by his brother, Leo, 37, came here from Chicago, to get a load of liquor, police say. While in an ecorse resort, Shea appeared and offered to take them to a place where they could buy liquor at better prices, it was said.

Shea got in their car and they drove up town. At Woodward and Milwaukee avenues another automobile drew alongside and its occupants opened fire killing Shea and wounding Baldwin.

Shea had a police record in Detroit, Cleveland, Dayton and Indianapolis.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Napoleon III Plans a Mexican Monarchy.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

HAVING LANDED IN MEXICO, THE COMMANDERS OF THE JOINT FRENCH, ENGLISH AND SPANISH EXPEDITIONARY FORCE DEMANDED THAT THE JUAREZ GOVERNMENT MAKE PAYMENT ON THE MEXICAN NATIONAL DEBTS TO EUROPE, AND GUARANTEE TO PROTECT THE LIVES AND PROPERTY OF EUROPEANS IN MEXICO. JUAREZ REJECTED THE DEMANDS OF THE INVADERS, AND AFTER FRUITLESS NEGOTIATIONS A SORT OF TRUCE WAS CONCLUDED.

THERE WAS MUCH DISSENSION AND LITTLE CONCERTED ACTION AMONG THE ALLIED EUROPEAN FORCES. ENGLAND AND SPAIN SOON SAW THAT FRANCE WAS DISPOSED TO MEDDLE WITH MEXICAN DOMESTIC AFFAIRS, AND IN THE SPRING OF 1862 WITHDREW THEIR TROOPS.

NAPOLEON III, THE FRENCH EMPEROR, URGED BY ENEMIES OF JUAREZ AND THE FRENCH "CLERICALS", PLANNED TO SEIZE MEXICO BY FORCE OF ARMS, ESTABLISH A MONARCHY, AND PLACE A EUROPEAN PRINCE ON THE THRONE.

MORE TROOPS WERE SENT FROM FRANCE, AND AN ADVANCE WAS MADE WHICH WAS CHECKED BY MEXICAN FORCES UNDER GENERALS ZARAGOZA AND PORFIRIO DIAZ IN THE BATTLE OF CINCO DE MAYO (5TH OF MAY), 1862.
TOMORROW—THE MEXICAN EMPIRE.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Traces of Monday's drastic closing reaction were still in the early trading today. While short covering and speculative "bargain hunting" accounted for some moderate rallie in the well known stocks, the list as a whole settled down to a lower range of values, with most of the market activity concentrated on the motor stocks, the steels and oils. Rubber and tire stocks forged ahead, while railroad shares were inactive but steady.

A 3½ per cent shrinkage in net August income was reported by the first 20 railroads to submit reports to the Interstate Commerce Commission, but this did not prevent the recovery of New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio and a few of the other well known shares. Atchison was weak at the start, but shared in the upturn later in the session.

United States Rubber, at the head of the rubber and tire stocks, pushed forward to above 58 for a gain of nearly 2 points. Houston Oil was run up 3 points to 151½. General Motors was on the upturn after the first hour, and North American led the utility after a block of 11,000 shares sold at 60. Otis Elevator made a complete recovery, with the stock selling at the year's high price of 153.

BIG DERRICK BEING PLACED

Large Crowd Watches Daring Work Of Structural Iron Workers

The First National Bank of Lawrence County building, corner of Washington and Mercer streets, was the center of attraction this morning for hundreds of people as structural iron workers completed the erection of the mammoth derrick of the United Erecting company, which is to carry the structural steel of the building to the heights at which it is needed.

The boom pole of the derrick is approximately 90 feet in length or heights as it may be desired to designate. When down to the low point, it reaches out over Washington street from the rear of the bank property.

This mammoth boom will reach down to the trucks at the corner of Washington and Mercer streets, pick up the structural steel from the trucks and carry it to the point needed.

All the structural steel is now in readiness for use and erection of the skeleton of the building will be started as soon as the derrick is ready.

The thing that attracted the greatest amount of attention was the agility and skill with which the structural iron workers did their bit, running up and down the ropes and along the boom like squirrels, sure footed and apparently not paying the least attention to their close proximity to danger at all times.

Catholic Women Protest Against Beauty Contests

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Bathing beauty contests were under the ban today of the National Council of Catholic women in session here.

The council adopted a resolution denouncing beauty contests, bathing beach pageants and other similar public exhibitions of girls as "detrimental to girl's welfare."

Mrs. George V. McIntyre of Chicago, president of the Catholic Big Sisters, led the attack upon beauty contests. She blamed parents for urging their daughters to enter such exhibitions which she termed "a backward step in the civilization of the world."

Right Rev. Joseph Schrembs, bishop of Cleveland, attacked the theory of evolution and criticised Rev. William Barnes Lord Bishop of Birmingham, England, who recently espoused the Darwinian theory.

Sheep Hill Case Before Squire

Joe Lasnick of Sheep Hill is charged before Alderman William E. Marshall with assault and battery by Mike Cusnick. A hearing will be held later. According to the information made, Lasnick is alleged to have been beating and abusing his wife when Cusnick, a man well up in years, protested from the street and asked him to desist. Lasnick is then alleged to have picked up a stone and threw it at Cusnick, hitting him in the mouth and knocking out his teeth. He is then alleged to have continued to beat his wife.

Structural Steel Will Be Placed

Real progress is now being made in the construction of the addition to the Lawrence Savings & Trust company building. The structural steel for the basement and first floor is at hand and is now being erected. As soon as it is in place, the steel for the upper stories will arrive as needed and the building will now go up with great rapidity.

The exhibits of household science and those of the Grange are especially attractive, and the vegetables and fruits at the hall, near the entrance of the grounds gives some idea of what is grown in Lawrence county. The auto show is complete.

NEW CASTLE AT HUB OF GREAT TERRITORY

Over Six Million Tons Of Freight Local Record For Past Year

New Castle Is Strategically Located To Reach Gigantic Markets Of America

That New Castle is located practically at the hub of the railways of the Eastern and Middle Western States is pointed out in the survey just completed by the Hockenbury System for the New Castle Chamber of Commerce.

New Castle is located practically in the center of the official freight classification territory, and can make delivery of products to the New England Seaboard as quickly as to the Mississippi Valley.

This territory of which New Castle is the center, includes 17 states, with a total population of 53,950,683. In this territory are located the largest cities of the United States and Canada, with unusual markets for manufactured products.

Five railways serve New Castle, the Baltimore and Ohio, the Pennsylvania System, the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie, the Erie, and the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh.

For all railways the tonnage for the past year 6,221,783. This is a marked gain when contrasted to the 5,525,731 for 1924 and the 5,836,918 for 1925.

Sixty-eight passenger trains enter and leave the yards of the railways of New Castle, while the number of freight trains entering and leaving totals 69, making a grand total of 274 trains a day. When business requires, there are two additional freight trains arriving and departing.

The Daybook OF A New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—There is no necessity to pay for amusement in this city.

A wandering salesman in the Forties drives up to the curb in a small sedan. He takes out a queer looking instrument and with it jacks up the car with singular ease. A crowd collects to watch and he starts his sales talk on the instrument, which is operated on a novel principle—that of hydraulic pressure. He will take your name and address, if you wish, and the jack, which sells for about $10, will be sent to your home c. o. d.

Lower Broadway is entertained by a tall, morbid-loking man who, although well dressed, walks slowly about, sandwiched between two billboards. And the lettering thereon declares:

"Behold, I am the Wandering Jew, God's Messenger. These Words did God speak unto me. 'Fear not, I heard thy prayer and this is the remedy for war. Set aside one day of universal worship, each one to go to their own church or synagogue and I will abolish war from the Earth. I, the Lord God, Creator of Heaven and Earth, have spoken it.'"

No one knows who this prophet is, nor for what reason he thus attempts the salvation of a wicked city. Nor does he volunteer the source from which he secured this alleged divine promise.

A new five-and-ten-cent store is soon to be opened on Forty-second street, opposite Bryant park. In the meantime, the spectacle of some half dozen painters, decorating the ceiling of the unfinished store, is more than sufficient to keep the attention of a goodly number of citizens.

The New York postoffice is accustomed to deciphering unintelligible addresses. Recently a postcard was received addressed to "AL. N. Y. U. S. A." The canny gents at the postoffice forwarded the letter to Governor Alfred Smith. It was meant for him.

* * *

Everyone is wondering why a great many of the stores have wired X-shaped wooden pieces to the center of their show windows. With the construction of new subway lines to say nothing of the enormous excavations under way for the foundations of new buildings, the stores must brace their windows. Otherwise, the shocks of repeated blasting would make short work of the plate glass.

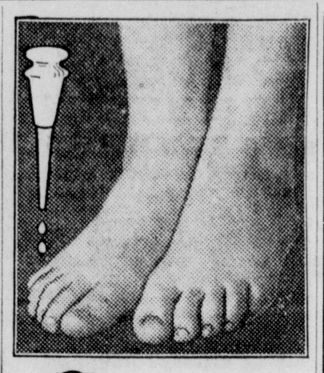

Weeds Conceal Street Barrier

As yet North Jefferson street leading from Wilmington avenue has not been opened because North Jefferson street is in impassable condition. It is planned to open the street next spring. A barrier, however, which has been placed to prevent motorists driving into the street cannot be seen. It is hidden by weeds.

Rushing Work On New Hospital

Rapid progress is being made at the new Jameson Memorial hospital. Concrete has been poured in the forms for the foundation.

Other workmen nearby are getting ready for the new sanitary sewer which is to course in Garfield avenue to the hospital.

Corns

Lift Off—No Pain!

Hard corns, soft corns, corns between the toes and calluses lift right off! You'll laugh—it is so easy and doesn't hurt a bit!

Just drop "Freezone" on any tender, touchy corn. Instantly it stops aching; then shortly you just lift that old bothersome corn right off with your fingers. It works like a charm, every time. Seems magic!

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs only a few cents at any drug store—Try it!

Plan Newspaper At Senior High

Prospects for a newspaper type of publication at the Senior High school to replace the Monitor, a magazine which has been published every six weeks at the school for over a period of ten years, are becoming brighter every day.

The staff which was chosen to take charge of the literary end of the Monitor and which has automatically become the editorial staff of the proposed paper is hard at work already. The editors are planning the first issue and news assignments have been given out to the members of the staff.

Work for the business staff however has not been so pleasant. Although this body has passed some of the "rough spots" so to speak, they are now confronted by other mountainous problems. It is hoped by all that a way will be worked out so as to make possible the publishing of a newspaper at the school.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

Flying talk seems to be creeping into our everyday conversation lately. A motorist starting on a trip tells you he is "taking off" and when he steps on the gas he is "giving 'er the gun."

It remained for a good brother of the city to pull the best one in front of the News the other day. He was driving a popular make of a car, the brakes of which were rather generous, that is to say, they gave quite a bit.

The gentleman pulled down Mercer street, cut his front wheels into the curb and the loose brakes failed to stop at the curb. The wheels mounted the curb and then settled back with a thud.

With a rather pleased expression on his face he remarked as he put on the emergency and climbed out: "Well that was a pretty good landing, I guess.

Tommy Blake is about ready to take his vacation. Not that this is unusual news, for like the rest of us Tommy takes his two weeks every year.

But Mr. Blake has a rather unusual vacation idea. He takes his at the world's series every year and if all signs are correct he will be commuting between New York and Pittsburgh. Tommy knows his baseball and has probably seen more world's series games than any other fan in this city.

Sheriff Buck Reynolds did a little roaming of his own last night on Washington street and for once had a few minutes to discuss this and that. After nearly two years of service Buck is willing to admit that there is a lot of work to do in the sheriff's office, but as he puts it, "there are 24 hours in every day" and a lot of them finds him on the job.

Some of the roaming between now and Saturday is going to be done at the New Castle fair grounds or my guess is wrong. And before anything is written, understand that this column conductor is still enough of a "yokel" to enjoy the ballyho of the midway. Of course, the attractions are over advertised, and of course that palm reader can't tell your fortune, but who cares? It's all in a fair and if I have time I'm going to see all the re-eeee-maw-kable shows out there.

Some folks, for instance Doc Zerner, get all their pleasure at the fair watching the horses run. That's all right, the races ought to be patronized. But for real honest-to-John enjoyment I'll take mine down the midway listening to the spiels of the barkers, the seductive invitations of the hot dog men to "get 'em while they're hot", and standing open-mouthed with wonder as some pseudo scientist expounds the attributes of one born in the sign of Aquarius and the reasons for his marrying some lady who was born under the sign of Pisces.

And then over at the cattle barn it's a real pleasure to see some of the prize stock raised by Lawrence county farmers. Hope Doc Jordan gets out to see the fair.

It does seem a pity that strawberries aren't exhibited at the fair. Too late, of course, but if they were, the chances are that Pres Buchanan from out Pulaski way would be in for the blue ribbon.

I do hope that Orville Brown and Harry Long didn't fall into the Atlantic on their trip to France. From all the cards from them, they must have forgotten to take any postage money with them. The next card I get from either of them will be the first.

The work of cutting the corner at Lincoln and Highland leading into the cathedral is coming along right well. And what a whale of a difference a few feet make.

Earl Brown is throwing out dark hints these days about people who fail to make good on wagers. And Henry Engs seems to fit into the picture. Earl and Henry laid a wager on the Tunney-Dempsey fight. If Dempsey won, Earl was to push Henry around the public square in a wheelbarrow, and if Tunney won, Henry was to furnish the locomotion. Tunney won, and Earl Brown is still looking for his ride.
